Deep Powder and Steep Rock Chic Scott, 2015-09-21 Introduces the reader to the exciting world of heli skiing and alpine adventure through the life of renowned adventurer and robust entrepreneur Hans Gmoser. Hans Gmoser 1932-2006 was the most influential mountaineer in Canada of the last fifty years. Through innovation, hard work, perseverance, and an appetite for adventure, Gmoser evolved from penniless immigrant to mountain guide for kings, queens, and prime ministers. He also played a major role in creating what is now western Canada's dynamic mountain adventure community. Known primarily as the inventor of heli skiing and the founder of Canadian Mountain Holidays (CMH), Gmoser also garnered recognition as a talented rock climber, tireless expedition leader, successful mountain guide, renowned filmmaker, community organizer, and vibrant businessman. Told from all aspects of his fascinating life and including some of Gmoser's own words, Chic Scott weaves together a compelling story based on the diaries, expedition journals, film commentaries, and personal correspondence of this charismatic and inspiring figure.

Buried -- Updated Edition Ken Wylie, 2020-09-04 An unparalleled memoir that grapples with the complex relationships that exist within the mountaineering community and how personal choices can have deep and tragic consequences On January 20 2003 at 10 45 a.m. a massive avalanche released from Tumbledown Mountain in the Selkirk Range of British Columbia Tonnes of snow carried 13 members of two guided backcountry skiing groups down the 37 degree incline of a run called La Traviata and buried them After a frantic hour of digging by remaining group members an unthinkable outcome became reality Seven people were dead The tragedy made international news splashing photos of the seven dead Canadian and US skiers on television screens and the pages of newspapers The official analysis did not specifically note guide error as a contributing factor in the accident This interpretation has been insufficient for some of the victims families the public and some members of the guiding community Buried is the assistant guide's story It renders an answerable truth about what happened by delving deep into the human factors that played into putting people in harm's way The story begins buried metres deep in snow and through care filled reflection emerges slowly like spring after a long winter nurturing a hopeful courageous dialogue for all who make journeys through the mountains of their life The story illustrates the peace that comes from accountability and the growth that results from understanding Conrad Kain Zac Robinson, 2014-09-08 Examine the life of the pioneering guide in these 144 letters sharing his thoughts on immigrating to Canada his passion for nature his travels and more Conrad Kain is a titan amongst climbers in Canada and is well known in mountaineering circles all over the world His letters to Amelie Malek a life long friend offer a candid view into the deepest thoughts of the Austrian mountain guide and are a perfect complement to his autobiography Where the Clouds Can Go The 144 letters provide a unique and personal view of what it meant to immigrate to Canada in the early part of the twentieth century Kain's letters are ordered chronologically with annotations keeping the sections in English untouched while those in German have been carefully translated Historians and mountain culture enthusiasts worldwide will appreciate Kain's genius for description his passion for nature his opinions and his musings about his life In a culture that enjoys as many romantic figures as there are mountain peaks on the horizon as viewed from a lofty summit Conrad Kain holds a special place in the historical landscape of western Canada's mountains Robinson makes no secret of his affection for Kain and that's a good thing because he handles the letters Kain wrote throughout his adult life while guiding in Canada and New Zealand to his dear friend in Austria Amelie Malek with the care and reverence they so richly deserve Lynn Martel Alpine Club of Canada Gazette From his letters it's obvious that Kain loved climbing mountains for the physical challenge to meet interesting people to make a living and for opportunities to travel around the world but most especially because of his all-consuming love of the natural world Cyndi M Smith The Canadian Field Naturalist Vol 129 No 1 Buried Ken Wylie, 2014-10-07 On January 20 2003 at 10 45 a.m. a massive avalanche in the Selkirk Range of British Columbia struck three members of two guided backcountry skiing groups and buried them After a frantic hour of digging by those still standing an unthinkable outcome became reality seven people were dead The tragedy made international news splashing photos of the seven dead Canadian and US skiers on television screens and newspaper pages The official analysis was that guide error was not a contributing factor in the accident This interpretation was insufficient for some of the victims' families the public and some members of the guiding community Buried is the assistant guide's story It renders an answerable truth about what happened by delving deep into the human factors that played into putting people in harm's way as well as the peace that comes from accountability and the personal growth that results from understanding
