Images of Change Teresa Delgado-Jermann,2023-03-02 Images of Change focuses on the visual propaganda employed by Catholic popes in Rome during the time of Tridentine Reform In 1563 at the Council of Trent the Catholic Church decided to reform its own use of imagery in response to Protestant criticism This volume examines how different sixteenth century popes dealt with church reform by looking at the variety of artworks that were commissioned particularly in the city of Rome the immediate sphere of influence of papal power Based on original research in the Vatican archives the book argues that because of the contradictory media strategies employed by individual popes the papacy began to lose its spiritual and temporal influence and power This book will appeal to students and scholars alike interested in the Roman Catholic Church in and around the sixteenth century as well as Early Modern religious reform and Papal influence Gardens and

Academies in Early Modern Italy and Beyond Denis Ribouillault,2024-10-21 This collection of essays explores the role of gardens in early modern academies and conversely the place of what might be called academic culture in early modern gardens While studies of botanical gardens have often focused on their association with a research institution the intention of this book is deliberately broader seeking to explore the interconnections between the built environment of the early modern garden and the more or less organised social and intellectual life it supported As such the book contributes to the intersection of several fields of research garden history literary history architectural history and socio political history and considers the garden as a site of performance that requires an intermedial approach Arts & Decoration ,1920
