China Blue Documentary Bing:

Wang Bing's Filmmaking of the China Dream Elena Pollacchi, 2025-10-01 This volume offers an organic discussion of Wang Bing's filmmaking across China's marginal spaces and against the backdrop of the state sanctioned China Dream Wang Bing's cinema gives voice to the subaltern Focusing on contemporary China his work testifies to a set of issues dealing with inequality labour and migration His internationally awarded documentaries are considered masterpieces with unique aesthetics that bear reference to global film masters Therefore this investigation goes beyond the divides between Western and non Western film traditions and between fiction and documentary cinema Each chapter takes a different articulation of space spaces of labour history and memory as its entry point bringing together film and documentary studies Chinese studies and globalization studies This volume benefits from the author's extensive conversations with Wang Bing and insider observations of film production and the film festival circuit

China's iGeneration Matthew D. Johnson, Keith B. Wagner, Luke Vulpiani, Kiki Tianqi Yu, 2014-05-22 This innovative collection of essays on post WTO Chinese cinema features contributions from an international community of scholars in the fields of media and film studies comparative literature and history The iGeneration describes a post cinematic post reform era phenomenon in China where the production distribution and consumption of films increasingly take a digital form and the flow of images parallels that of capital By calling attention to a wide range of agendas since 2001 nation building market diffusion cultural capital self understanding regional deviance social justice as well as functions e.g. state didacticism commodified leisure personal expression virtual surveillance worldly connoisseurship iGeneration offers Chinese moving image culture at its most diverse From experimental documentaries to 3D films animation and video art to visual aides memoirs and piracy films the essays in China's iGeneration offers novel interpretations of how cinema and generation have been redefined

From Underground to Independent Paul Pickowicz, Yingjin Zhang, 2006 This groundbreaking book presents a critical introduction to the cultural and political dimensions of contemporary Chinese cinema Leading Western and Chinese scholars trace the changing dynamics of Chinese film culture since the early 1990s as it moves away from underground and toward independence in the new century Yet as the rich case studies illustrate the sheer variety of alternative film culture itself provides sufficient opportunities for different at times contradictory configurations of cinematic products Drawing on vigorous interdisciplinary scholarship the book investigates the objects of its study from various methodological perspectives ranging from historical and literary to sociological and ethnographic In addition to offering critical readings of specific texts this book explores alternative film culture through personal interviews on site observations and media interrogations from traditional print media to the visual media of film television and video including the new digital media of the Internet The contributors also consider the flourishing independent documentary filmmaking scene highlighting a crucial part of alternative film that has been previously obscured by an almost exclusive attention on the fifth and sixth generation directors of fictional movies With its fresh and knowledgeable analysis of Chinese underground and independent filmmaking this book will be essential reading for all those interested in a society caught between socialism and global currents Contributions by Chris Berry Jim Cheng Valerie Jaffee Matthew David Johnson Tonglin Lu Chen Mo Seio Nakajima Paul G Pickowicz Zhiwei Xiao and Yingjin Zhang
