Choices For 9 Toronto District School Board:

Understanding School Choice in Canada Lynn Bosetti, Dianne Gereluk, 2016-08-04 Understanding School Choice in Canada provides a nuanced and theoretical overview of the formation and rise of school choice policies in Canada Drawing on twenty years of work Lynn Bosetti and Dianne Gereluk analyze the philosophical historical political and social principles that underpin the formation and implementation of school choice policies in the provinces and territories Bosetti and Gereluk offer theoretical frameworks for considering the parameters of school choice policies that are aligned and attentive to Canadian educational contexts This robust overview successfully shifts the debate away from ideology in order to facilitate an understanding that the spectrum of school choice policy in Canada is a response to the varying political challenges in society at large This book is essential reading for those who desire a deeper understanding of school choice policies in Canada

Pushing the Limits Kelly Gallagher-Mackay, Nancy Steinhauer, 2017-08-29 How do we prepare children for a future we can't even imagine Across Canada a debate swirls around what our children will need to know in the face of huge technological economic social and political change The question has become an ideological battleground and there is a hunger for a deeper understanding of what we should be doing to prepare children now for the challenges of the future This timely important book is an answer to that call In Pushing the Limits Kelly Gallagher Mackay and Nancy Steinhauer draw on their experiences as educational leaders to reveal that the schools of the future exist in the here and now They introduce us to extraordinary Canadian public schools deeply rooted in their communities that are fostering innovators nimble problem solvers and engaged citizens boosting math comprehension cultivating creativity and using technology to broaden the parameters of learning And they explore why the role of schools is expanding to nurture students social emotional skills and growth mindsets and how vital this broader definition of education is to children's long term health happiness and success This book provides a vision of what schooling can and should look like in our rapidly shifting world and explores how we parents and teachers can realize this vision together

New Framings on Anti-Racism and Resistance Ayan Abdulle, Anne Nelun Obeyesekere, 2017-06-09 This collection of essays generates important enquiries into the teaching and practice of anti racism education by way of working through conversations contestations and emotions as presented by a diverse group of strong women committed to social justice work in their own right Throughout the collection contemporary educational issues are situated within personal political historical and philosophical conversations which work to broach the challenges and possibilities for students educators staff administrators policy makers and community members who engage in critical anti racism education This work diverges from the existing scholarship by way of bringing new insights to the theoretical possibilities of resistance and futurity as voiced through pedagogues practitioners and scholars in anti racism In this book the authors speak to the importance of anti racism discursivity in a time when even those who desire to engage this framework struggle to be heard in a time when there are anti racism policies in institutions yet to speak anti racism philosophy remains dangerous and in a time when to speak race and anti racism is considered to be stirring up trouble in the face of post racial discourses

Almanac of Education Choices Jerry Mintz,1995

Education Policy and Racial Biopolitics in Multicultural Cities Kalervo N. Gulson,P. Taylor Webb,2017-07-26 The empirical focus of this book is on the twenty year struggle by parents and members of the Black community in Toronto to introduce an Africentric Alternative School AAS with Black focused curricula It brings together a seemingly disparate series of events that emerged from equity and multicultural narratives about the establishment of the school violence anti racism and race based statistics policy entrepreneurs and the re birth of alternative schools in Toronto to illustrate how these events ostensibly functioned through neoliberal choice mechanisms and practices Gulson and Webb show how school choice can represent and manifest the hopes and fears contestations and settlements of contemporary racial biopolitics of education in multicultural cities
