The Life and Times of John Trevisa, Medieval Scholar David C. Fowler, 2016-06-01 John Trevisa ca 1342 1402 perhaps the greatest of Middle English prose translators of Latin texts into English was almost an exact contemporary of Geoffrey Chaucer Trevisa was born in Cornwall studied at Oxford and was instituted vicar of Berkeley a position he held until his death Over a period of thirty five years eminent medievalist David Fowler has pieced together an account of Trevisa's life and times by diligently seeking out documents bearing on his activities and translations This has resulted in a cultural history of fourteenth century England that ranges from the administrative geographical and linguistic status of Cornwall to the curriculum of medieval university education and from religious and secular conflicts to the administration of a substantial provincial household and the role of its aristocratic keepers in the Hundred Years War Fowler provides an analysis of Trevisa's known translations the Gospel of Nicodemus Dialogus inter Militem et Clericum FitzRalph's Defensio Curatorum the Polychronicon De Regimine Principum and De Proprietatibus Rerum He also advances the hypothesis that Trevisa was one of the scholars responsible for the first complete translation of the scriptures into English the Wycliffite Bible An appendix contains a collection of biographical and historical references designed to illustrate Fowler's contention that Trevisa may have been responsible for the revisions of Piers the Plowman now known as the B and C texts

Heidegger Jacques Derrida, 2016-06-16 Few philosophers held greater fascination for Jacques Derrida than Martin Heidegger and in this book we get an extended look at Derrida's first real encounters with him Delivered over nine sessions in 1964 and 1965 at the cole Normale Supérieure these lectures offer a glimpse of the young Derrida first coming to terms with the German philosopher and his magnum opus Being and Time They provide not only crucial insight into the gestation of some of Derrida's primary conceptual concerns indeed it is here that he first uses with some hesitation the word deconstruction but an analysis of Being and Time that is of extraordinary value to readers of Heidegger or anyone interested in modern philosophy Derrida performs an almost surgical reading of the notoriously difficult text marrying pedagogical clarity with patient rigor and acting as a lucid guide through the thickets of Heidegger's prose At this time in intellectual history Heidegger was still somewhat unfamiliar to French readers and Being and Time had only been partially translated into French Here Derrida mostly uses his own translations giving his own reading of Heidegger that directly challenges the French existential reception initiated earlier by Sartre He focuses especially on Heidegger's Destraktion which Derrida would translate both into solicitation and deconstruction of the history of ontology and indeed of ontology as such concentrating on passages that call for a rethinking of the place of history in the question of being and developing a radical account of the place of metaphoricity in Heidegger's thinking This is a rare window onto Derrida's formative years and in it we can already see the philosopher we've come to recognize one characterized by a bravura of exegesis and an inventiveness of thought that are particularly and singularly his

The International Encyclopaedic Dictionary ..., 1901 The Coastguard, Emergency Towing Vessels and the Maritime Incident Response Group Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee, 2011-06-23 Under current proposals the Maritime Coastguard Agency plans to close ten of the existing 14 Maritime Rescue Coordination Centres and to leave three that remain open on a 24 hour basis and five that will operate in daylight hours only The Transport Committee found little support for the measures and has no confidence that under these proposals the Coastguard will in future be able to respond to emergencies at sea as well as they do now let alone in a more effective way The Committee is not convinced by the Government's claim that technology can at present replace local knowledge Serious concerns were raised that the safety of people at sea on cliffs and beaches will be jeopardised if the proposals proceed in their current form Ministers must issue revised proposals for further consultation The Committee also strongly condemns the Government's cost cutting decision to withdraw funding for the four Emergency Towing Vessels ETVs stationed around the UK coast large tugs that intercept disabled ships to prevent environmental pollution disasters The Transport Committee also criticises proposals to completely remove government funding for the Maritime Incident Response group MIRG a national fire fighting at sea capability Ministers should instead adopt a slimmed down MIRG which is more cost effective than the present arrangement Lastly the Committee records its disappointment that Mike Penning MP Minister for Shipping instructed regular coastguards not to give oral evidence to the committee on the basis that they were junior civil servants
