Annual Review of Research for School Leaders MacMillan, 1997-12

Macmillan Reference USA publishes a series of comprehensive handbooks that bring together authoritative research on a variety of educational topics. These titles are all valuable resources for school officials, teachers, public policymakers, and education professors and majors and are sponsored by professional associations in research and education. Each handbook in the series provides an assessment of the significance of the research findings, evaluates new and emerging developments in the field, examines historical and current conflicts, controversies, and unresolved issues, links findings in one field to related fields, offers articles by professionals, researchers, and educators with firsthand experience, suggests practical ways to apply knowledge in the classroom and workplace. This is the first comprehensive and authoritative overview of research in the burgeoning field of corporate training. Sponsored by the American Psychological Association, Training and Retraining contains contributions from professionals in the academic, government, and business worlds. Bringing together never before published findings and the best practice examples, it shows trainers how to apply educational psychology in their work while it educates psychologists on the special problems and concerns faced by trainers today. Articles cover ad hoc training practices and cost and effectiveness assessments, relevant technologies such as telecommunications and computer applications, instructional tactics and strategies, and much more.

Developmentally Appropriate Middle Level Schools M. Lee Manning, 1993. Early adolescence as a developmental period is examined; the physical, psychosocial, and cognitive characteristics of 10 to 15 year olds are described and recommendations are given on how middle level schools can provide developmentally appropriate educational experiences. The book shows how young adolescents' physical, psychosocial, and cognitive developmental characteristics can form the basis for curricular, instructional, and organizational decisions. Resources for middle level school educators are listed, including professional associations, Web sites, and resource centers. The author is affiliated with Old Dominion University. There is no subject index. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc. Portland, OR.
