Back To School Program For Church:

Fostering Christian Faith in Schools and Christian Communities Through Igbo Traditional Values Michael Okoh, 2012 Religious education in Nigeria is in a state of transformation owing to the country's current pluralist nature among other factors. In the process, concepts of religion and education are revisited and reassessed in order to make them meaningful to mankind in his pluralist world. With this book, author Michael Okoh inaugurates a fundamental revision. He brings traditional African education and values alongside Christian ideals into dialogue with the Western progressive learning approaches, paving new ways for religious education activity in Nigeria, particularly in Igboland. He served as a police officer for a number of years and was later sentenced to seven years in prison where God used him powerfully to minister to the inmates. For the past fifteen years, he has served as a pastor at St John's Missionary Baptist Church in Gastonia, North Carolina. Through each season of life, he has never given up sharing his thoughts on life, love, and achievement, as well as his successes and failures. Rev Jackson gives hope and encouragement to bloom in whatever situation you find yourself in today. The key to blooming is remembering where you are in life and being thankful in the midst of it. Many stories and lessons are shared throughout How to Bloom Where You Are, giving you inspiration for life's journey. It will restore confidence that you can make a difference wherever God has placed you. Make today your starting point to bloom into your destiny. Rev Darial Jackson and wife Emma.
