Conifers P. den Ouden,B.K. Boom,2012-12-06 As an introduction to the present book I would like to explain how it was that I a commercial nurseryman became so keenly interested in Conifers and their nomen clature In August 1924 the Dutch Dendrological Society was founded and at the same time a Committee for Nomenclature of woody plants was set up and I served on this committee as one of the members Our first activity was to bring the catalogues of the various leading nurserymen in the Netherlands into line with the International Rules of Botanical Nomenclature and also to check their nursery stock Formerly these catalogues had shown a rather confused nomenclature nurserymen having usually made use of a variety of inconsistent books as guides in compiling their catalogues In the course of the work a close co operation between scientific and practical workers developed Although I had also fully contributed to the correct naming of hardy shrubs and perennials I was most interested in Conifers I had tried out several species had grown a wide choice of garden forms and selected types of particular merit for propagation My special love for Conifers lead to the publication of my Name list of Conifers 1937 which was adopted as a standard for varietal names at the International Horticultural Congress in Berlin 1938 Later I prepared my book Coniferen Ephedra en Ginkgo in the Dutch language 1949 compiling the Conifers cultivated or known to be grown in the Netherlands and Belgium at that time A Manual of medical treatment or Clinical therapeutics. v. 2 Isaac Burney Yeo,1901 The Political Economy of Uneven Rural Development Sudarshana Bordoloi,2020-07-10 The book shows how class relations develop and is a consequence of capitalist development of the rural non agricultural non farm sector RNFS seen as the dialectical relation between the forces and relations of production as mediated by the state which produces uneven social and spatial outcomes Central to the framework for this book are four inter related conceptual building blocks or themes social relations of production productive forces role of the state and concrete development outcomes of capitalist production in RNFS in the context of class and non class relations of oppressions These four conceptual themes follow a logical sequence where each concept evolve in specific contexts within the RNFS while connected to each other in a dialectical manner and come together to form the central argument of the book
