The volume while focusing on the recent developments and frontiers of research in international trade and international finance also emphasizes the inherent integrated nature of the two subjects. Some of the papers are overlapping across the two areas. A unique feature of the proposed volume is that it unravels some new issues in addition to re-examining certain old issues in a new perspective and thus covers wide ranging issues with an emphasis on policy. The book covers issues mostly relating to emerging market economies which has increasingly assumed importance in the context of globalization. The book contains some survey papers covering the frontiers of current knowledge on important themes like recent developments in trade theory and empirics foreign exchange market institutions in trade and finance interrelation and interaction between international trade and international finance. The papers fruit of rigorous and original research are written by internationally and nationally reputed authors along with promising young researchers on the subjects The book substantially contributes to the growing literature on issues relating to trade and international finance in emerging market economies and extends the frontiers of knowledge The book is expected to have the widest possible readership comprising of advanced undergraduate and graduate students as well as senior researchers working in international trade and international finance

The Global Gamble Peter Gowan, 1999 The collapse of the Soviet Bloc presented policy makers in Washington with a temptation reminiscent of Faust's opening up vistas of hitherto unimaginable global power but the cold breath of Mephistopheles is already blowing across devastated communities from southeast Asia to the Balkan peninsula in the wake of America's bid for world power In this major analysis of the new era of American domination Peter Gowan strips away the language of humanitarian ideals that have cloaked US interventions from Baghdad to Belgrade to reveal far more cynical goals with the real democratic hopes of the peoples of Europe the South and East systematically trampled down in the rush to impose NATO based US political leadership across the globe Gowan surveys the transformation of NATO from Cold War security shield for Western Europe into a global vigilante force in pursuit of US interests with European footsoldiers under American command He explains the projected expansion of the EU into a set of first and second class countries incapable of any political action independent of the United States and he analyses the catastrophic social and economic effects of the neo liberal Shock Therapy imposed on Russia and Eastern Europe with devastating results Far from being an unstoppable natural force against which every nation state is powerless Gowan argues compellingly that the process of globalisation has been relentlessly driven forward by the enormous political power of the US state and business interests in a highly conscious bid to extend their strategic dominance over the world economy He shows how the international finance system the Dollar Wall Street Regime created out of the ashes of Breton Woods has been exploited as a political lever to open up local economies to US products and speculative flows of hot money and demonstrates how each financial crisis over the last ten years has been used by the Washington Wall Street axis to force through dramatic economic and social re engineering in the targeted countries While posing as a benign economic education for developing economies US led rescue packages in fact leave these countries seriously weakened destroying national industrial sectors while elevating to power such local rentier interests as the Russian mafia capitalists and leaving the already fragile social tissue of many of these countries irreparably damaged This masterly survey both bold and compelling will become a landmark in the debate on the new world order threatening the twenty first century
