Economics, Today & Tomorrow Roger LeRoy Miller, 1995 Applies traditional economic theory to contemporary problems such as unemployment inflation and conflicting economic systems      Economics Gary E. Clayton, 2008      Airline Microeconomics Tony Webber, 2022-07-25 This book presents readers with a technical tool kit to understand the economics of airlines It starts by covering the key language and glossary of the air travel business which is necessary for graduates or first time employees in aviation to understand the content of conversations meetings presentations and internal aviation communications It then breaks down the complexity of the demand side of the air travel business The book then analyses revenue over two distinct time horizons specifically the short and medium runs recognising the fact that airlines operate to a fixed number of seats over a short horizon because of the way that they schedule services in advance of departure By combining revenue and costs the book then analyses airline profit with a focus on the short run and medium run decision variables that maximise airline profit The remainder of the book analyses various important topics in air transport economics including competition in airline markets key rules regulations and taxes that affect the return on capital in aviation the way that airlines form relationships and the economics of the market for oil and jet fuel among others      Managing Community Resettlement Robert Gerrits, 2023-06-22 Each year millions of people are displaced from their homes and lands While international environmental and social performance standards on land access and involuntary resettlement exist no framework supporting livelihood restoration has been developed This book provides a framework that will help improve practice for those who are involved in resettlement projects and crucially improve the outcomes for the resettlement affected households and communities Evidence from the implementation of public and private sector led resettlement projects indicates that livelihood restoration is a persistent shortcoming if not failure across these projects This book addresses this issue by re characterising the livelihood restoration objective as livelihood re establishment and development and proposes a framework for the entire resettlement process that puts livelihood considerations first The framework enables proactive identification of the potential livelihood challenges associated with each step of the resettlement process design planning execution monitoring and evaluation as well as the opportunities that resettlement project development and induced economic growth create This book is essential reading for experts in social impact assessment resettlement specialists planners administrators non governmental and civil society organisations and students of development studies and social policy      The American Journey Joyce Oldham Appleby, Alan Brinkley, James M. McPherson, 2003      Deindustrialisation and the Moral Economy in Scotland since 1955 Jim Tomlinson, Valerie Wright, Jim Phillips, 2021-09-09 Deindustrialisation is the central feature of Scotland's economic social and political history since the 1950s when employment levels peaked in the established sectors of coal shipbuilding metals and textiles along with the railways and docks This book moves analysis beyond outmoded tropes of economic decline and industrial catastrophe and instead examines the political economy of deindustrialisation with a sharp eye on cultural and social dimensions that were not uniformly negative as often assumed Viewing the long term process of deindustrialisation through a moral economy framework the book carefully reconstructs the impact of economic change on social class gender relations and political allegiances including a reawakened sense of Scottish national identity In doing so it reveals deindustrialisation as a more complex process than the customary body count of closures and job losses suggests and demonstrates that socioeconomic change did not just happen but was influenced by political agency
