ABOUT CAR SHOWROOM MANAGEMENT

A car dealership or vehicle local distribution is a business that sells new or used cars at the retail level, based on a dealership contract with an automaker or its sales subsidiary. It employs automobile salespeople to sell their automotive vehicles. It may also provide maintenance services for cars, and employ automotive technicians to check and sell spare automobile parts and process warranty claims.

The early cars were sold by automakers to customers directly, or through a variety of channels that included mail order, department stores, and travelling representatives. The first dealership in the United States was established in 1898 by William E. Motter. Direct sales by an automaker to consumers.
