

Why watch cartoons if you're an adult? Because cartoons often have the best scores, most interesting plots and/or most humorous dialogue, and the best "cinematography" of any visual media. The best are stunning works of art and imagination.

This is a rating guide, not a review book -- hit up internet forums for extended analyses. Its purpose is to quickly alert you to animation you may never have heard of. It is also skewed from the perspective of an adult animation fan -- a lowly-rated show may be immensely enjoyable for small children and even competently-made, but was of little interest to me; a highly-rated show will be competently-made, and may or may not be enjoyable for or even marketed to small children.

If a show has English-language versions, those are the versions I have likely watched (and I appreciate good dubbing and loathe bad dubbing). A show with great writing but average animation will score higher on this list than a show with great animation but average writing.

This list covers mainly animated television series, although many films are included. I have not seen every episode of some shows rated 7 and lower and many episodes of shows rated 5 or lower; indicated ratings may change if I see new episodes of better or worse quality than those previous, or if many better or worse episodes of other shows alter the landscape.

Anything rated at least "5" is in the category of "average show worth watching for the cartoon buff, provided you have time"; you probably won't watch re-runs, however. A typical "5" cartoon features arch-type characters and villains, with serviceable if unexceptional dialogue, animation and plots. "4"s and lower feature too much bad animation, one-dimensional characters, lousy voice-acting, plot-holes, dumbed-down or just plain stupid writing and spastic slapstick for this adult reviewer to stomach -- although kids will like many of them. "3"s and lower will have the smart adult scrambling for the remote. "6"s and "7"s feature more charismatic characters, more innovative drawing and intelligent scripting than average, and anything rated "8" or better is likely to pull you in to watching a re-run while you're channel-flipping, even if it's well-memorized already. Anything rated "9" is truly exceptional, and perfect in nearly every way. "10"s are reserved only for those shows which, IMO, will become or already are timeless classics. Highly-rated shows generally have unique and memorable musical scores associated with them. Make an effort to see every "9" and up before you croak, and most 7s and 8s.

- "3D" indicates an obvious computer generated style as opposed to a 2D drawn artwork look.
- "adult" indicates overly lewd sexual references and/or foul language. Some adult-oriented cartoons are superlative witty parodies or taut thrillers; most are rancid, fast-buck trash.
- "adventure" means the main characters are perpetually on the move.
- "cards" means the show is a marketing vehicle to sell trading cards; most of these involve children with strange monster pets or summoned creatures who fight each other.
- "comedy" describes humorous shows that are neither toons nor spoofs.
- "DCAU" refers to the "DC Animated Universe" created by Bruce Timm and Paul Dini.
- "east" denotes an oriental-themed samurai, ninja or martial-arts cartoon. This guide does not otherwise distinguish between cartoons and "anime".
- "educational" shows frequently deal with ethical, historical or geographical aspects.
- "family" indicates a show with very broad appeal; it isn't specifically written for any age group, and is neither "dumbed down" nor "sophisticated humor".
- "fantasy" indicates the presence of magic or "chi" and/or spirits, gods, ghosts, demons, undead, fantastic animals, etc, but the setting is in an otherwise modern world.
