Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-12 The Woman Citizen ,1922 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades'

Journal ,1959 Making Respectable Women Mary Evans,2020-12-16 This book studies the ways in which the assessment of being or not being respectable has been applied to women in the UK in the past one hundred and fifty years Mary Evans shows how the term respectable has changed and how most importantly the basis of the ways in which the respectability of women has been judged has shifted from a location in women s personal domestic and sexual behaviour to that of how women engage in contemporary forms of citizenship not the least of which is paid work This shift has important social and political implications that have seldom been explored amongst these are the growing marginalisation of the validation of the traditional care work of women the assumption that paid work is implicitly and inevitably empowering and the complex ways in which respectability and conformity to highly sexualised conventions about female appearance have been normalised Making Respectable Women makes use of archive material to show how the changing definition of a moral and social concept can have an impact on both the behaviour and the choices of individuals and the operations of institutional power It will be of interest to students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences How We Walk Matthew Beaumont,2024-03-05 You can tell a lot about people by how they walk Matthew Beaumont argues that our standing walking body holds the social traumas of history and its racialized inequalities Our posture and gait reflect our social and political experiences as we navigate the city under capitalism Through a series of dialogues with thinkers and walkers his book explores the relationship between freedom and the human body How We Walk foregrounds the work of Frantz Fanon psychiatrist and leading thinker of liberation who was one of the first people to think about the politics of walking while black It also introduces us to the renegade psychoanalyst Wilhelm Reich who wrote that one could discern the truth about a person through their posture and gait For Marxist philosopher Ernst Bloch the ability to walk upright and with ease is a sign of personal and social freedom Through these excursions Beaumont reimagines the canonical literature on walking and presents a new interpretation of the impact of class and race on our physical and political mobility raising important questions about the politics of the body Hiking in European Mountains Pablo Vidal-González,2020-07-20 Nature sports in general and hiking in particular have become in our urban and post industrial societies a growing phenomenon practiced by millions of citizens The motivations and interests of this large group are varied but they have a common element to disconnect from stressful modern life and reconnect with nature National parks and other protected areas are the preferred destinations but they present an challenging contrast for land management conservation versus tourist use While once considered a romantic practice of escape and discovery hiking is now a consumer product and a tourist experience It promises experiences of disconnection quiet and health yet natural spaces are increasingly scarce and more often than not they are crowded by other recreationalists This book presents a multidisciplinary perspective on the latest trends and developments in hiking In particular the authors work from a European perspective with various outdoor recreation models represented and different conservation initiatives explored in the contexts of Spain Norway Poland Germany and Lebanon Collectively the authors attend to hiking as a social phenomenon and economic opportunity which has the potential to sustainably revitalize rural destinations if managed properly Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1978 Whitaker's

Five-year Cumulative Book List ,1953 Delhi: New Literatures of the Megacity Alex Tickell,Ruvani

Ranasinha,2020-06-29 In this book leading scholars working on urban South Asia chart new forms of literature about contemporary Delhi Incorporating original contributions by Delhi based commentators and covering significant new themes and genres it updates current critical understanding of how contemporary literature has registered the momentous economic and social forces reshaping India s major cities This timely volume responds not only to the contextual challenge of a Delhi transformed by economic liberalisation and commercial growth into a global megacity but also to the emergent formal and generic changes through which this process has been monitored and critiqued in writing The collection includes studies of the city as a disabling metropolis as a space of marginal electronic text as a zone of gendered spatiality and sexual violence and as a terrain in which urban villagers have been displaced by the growing city It also provides close analyses of emerging genres such as urban comix digital narratives literary reportage and city biography Delhi New Literatures of the Megacity will be of interest to students and researchers in disciplines ranging from postcolonial and global literature to cultural studies civic history and South Asian and urban studies It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Postcolonial Writing Tourism and National Identity Kalyan Bhandari,2014-06-26 This book explores the role of tourism as a means to express nation and nationhood Based on field research in southwest and central Scotland it shows how various historical accounts cultural icons and images events and celebrations create a meaning of the Scottish nation It examines the narratives either explicit or implicit produced at heritage related tourism sites and how these become interwoven with the ideology of a nation This volume will be of use to researchers and students in tourism and heritage studies Scottish studies culture and identity nationalism and national identity as well as to tourism and heritage industry professionals and policy makers Historical Fiction Library of Congress. National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped,1983

The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond,2017-03-02 This collection of essays locates investigates and challenges the manner in which the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945 Scholars from the two sections of the continent explore a wide range of fiction film journalism travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years The first section looks back to the Cold War examining the divergent often favourable images of the Balkans that existed in Western culture as well as the variety of responses that appeared in South East European writings on the West The second section analyses the transitions that took place in representation during the 1990s Here contributors explore both the harsh denigration of the Balkans which came to dominate western discourse after the initial euphoria of 1989 and the emerging tradition of contesting Western balkanism in South East European cultural production Through this dual emphasis the volume exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result Despite the rise to prominence of postcolonial theory with its awareness of global inequality the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO s vast propaganda machine the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context American Bookseller ,1992 Major Authors and Illustrators for Children and Young Adults ,1993 Contains updated and revised sketches on nearly 800 of the most widely read authors and illustrators appearing in Gale s Something about the author series The Cumulative Book Index ,1963 A world list of books in the English language Bookseller and Stationery Trades' Journal ,1963 The Bookseller ,1979 Canadian Periodical Index ,1995
