Halliday and Chinese Linguistics: The Full Circle Zhuanglin Hu, 2024-06-24 This book is a progressive exposition on Halliday's academic thought and its origins by the renowned linguist Hu Zhuanglin based on 30 years of research. The first part, Chinese Origin, introduces readers to the author's gradual understanding that Halliday's academic thought mainly came from Chinese scholars such as Wang Li, Luo Changpei, and Gao Mingkai. In the 1980s, Halliday and his students introduced the theory of Systemic Functional Linguistics into the foreign language and linguistics circles in China, thus Halliday's academic thought returned to where it originated. The second part, A Discussion of Theories, mainly addresses the author's experience and further discussions after learning Halliday's theory. The theme of the third part is Discourse Analysis and focuses on the greatest difference between Systemic Functional Linguistics and traditional grammar: sentence grammar. Halliday emphasizes the study of discourse and sentences are only the embodiment of discourse at the next level. The fourth part, The Study of Chinese, applies Halliday's linguistic theory to the evolution of the research of the Chinese language in China, which can better explain the theme of return and is of great significance for Chinese scholars' understanding and application of Halliday's academic thought.

Transforming Hanzi Pedagogy in the Digital Age: Theory, Research, and Practice Chengzhi Chu, Matthew D. Coss, Phyllis N. Zhang, 2024-08-15

Transforming Hanzi Pedagogy in the Digital Age brings together expert researchers and practitioners to offer a coherent theoretical, empirical, pedagogical, and experiential justification for a shift in pedagogical focus from handwriting to e-writing in L2 Chinese pedagogy. This volume argues for a pedagogy based on the 21st century communicative needs of L2 Chinese users grounded in empirical research as well as practical and lived experiences. The authors propose an e-writing as primary framework for L2 Chinese instruction in the 21st century, a transformational proposal which will fundamentally shift the pedagogical focus of L2 Chinese instruction globally towards more learner-centered research-informed practice. This volume includes three theoretical foundation chapters, four empirical studies, three descriptions of program-level implementation, and ten expert L2 Chinese user vignettes which taken together offer a thorough introduction to e-writing for the future of L2 Chinese teaching and learning. This book will be informative for Chinese language instructors, researchers, program directors, materials developers, and advanced graduate students in both CFL and CSL contexts worldwide.

A Reference Grammar of Mandarin Chinese for English Speakers Chauncey Cheng-hsi Chu, 1984

This reference grammar provides a description of Mandarin Chinese in familiar terms and enables the English-speaking reader to transfer his/her knowledge of English to the study of Chinese. Many of the unique features of the language are treated through a comparison with semantically corresponding though syntactically different features in English. Aside from the conventional types of sentences, special constructions are amply explained and illustrated for the reader Understanding the specific meaning of each of these constructions is one of the central themes of the grammar This book contains a number of original analyses such as that of the shi de construction and the notion of continuum for the indiscrete nature of linguistic structure which should serve as a valuable reference source for both the language teacher and the profession of Chinese linguistics

Chinese Environmental Aesthetics Gerald Cipriani, 2015-05-15 China is currently afflicted by enormous environmental problems This book drawing on ancient and modern Chinese environmental thinking considers what it is that makes an environment a desirable place for living The book emphasises ideas of beauty and discusses how these ideas can be applied in natural agricultural and urban environments in order to produce desirable environments The book argues that environment is both a product of nature and of human beings and as such is potentially alterable by culture The book explores the three aspects of environmental beauty whereby such alteration might be beneficially made integrated and holistic ecological and man made and authentic and everyday This book addresses environmental issues by distinctively suggesting that an aesthetic approach inspired from ancient Chinese tradition could help us overcome the many problems that human beings have created at local and global levels Although its main focus is the traditional and current contexts of the People's Republic of China the book transcends national borders A typical example is the ancient Chinese thought system and cultural practice of Feng Shui that sought to negotiate how the natural environment and human constructions can cohabit without destructing each other The author evokes that sought after harmony through the powerful image of gardens of life whose environmental beauty can be found in traditional Chinese gardens and palaces as well as historically and culturally preserved cities

The size of things I Zheng Shen, Sabine Laszakovits, 2021 This book focuses on the role size plays in grammar Under the umbrella term size fall the size of syntactic projections the size of feature content and the size of reference sets The contributions in this first volume discuss size and structure building The most productive research program in syntax where size plays a central role revolves around clausal complements Part 1 of Volume I contributes to this program with papers that argue for particular structures of clausal complements as well as papers that employ sizes of clausal complements to account for other phenomena The papers in Part 2 of this volume explore the interaction between size and structure building beyond clausal complements including phenomena in CP vP and NP domains The contributions cover a variety of languages many of which are understudied The book is complemented by Volume II which discusses size effects in movement agreement and interpretation

A Discourse Grammar of Mandarin Chinese Chauncey Cheng-hsi Chu, 1998 A Discourse Grammar of Mandarin Chinese focuses on the relationships between clauses in Mandarin Chinese in the functional framework Underlying these relationships are notions like modality presupposition topicality and information structure encoded by such devices as conjunction aspect topic sentence particles and subordination Chauncey Chu devotes a chapter to each of these devices with a view to discovering their contribution to the coherent organization of Chinese discourse These devices are finally integrated into a network culminating in a proposal of the discourse sentence represented by SENTENCE to replace the syntactically and or semantically defined traditional sentence The organization of SENTENCES into paragraphs also is discussed in the framework of Rhetorical Structure Theory International Journal of Translation ,1994 English and Tamil Dictionary for the Use of Students and Colleges ,1888 A Dictionary of Slang, Jargon & Cant Albert Barrère, Charles Godfrey Leland, 1889 Hongkong Blue Book for the Year ... Hong Kong, 1923 A Further Collection of Chinese Lyrics, and Other Poems Duncan Robert MacKintosh, Alan Ayling, 1970 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1980-10 New Serial Titles ,1996 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949 Linguistics in the Netherlands ,1998 Chinese by Bygones John Marney, 1997 A new program in Chinese language study
