

Child Care Center Management Guide

A Hands-On Resource

Third Edition

Operating a child care facility is a challenging and rewarding, yet demanding, job. The many and varied responsibilities can sometimes seem overwhelming. Child Care Center Management Guide provides the basic principles and procedures for carrying out these responsibilities.

This new edition of Child Care Center Management Guide refines the version of earlier editions and gives the reader suggestions and recommended practices for any kind of operating facility, including for-profit, non-profit, part-time, full-time, non-monthly, or year-round programs.

Included in this edition are updated guidelines for meeting insurance requirements, important information on alternative action being practices, personnel updates, new first aid and playground safety practices, and much more.

Child Care Center Management Guide is an essential resource that will help you open and operate your center in the most efficient and responsible way and provide wholesome and helpful service to the families in your community.
