Michigan Bibliography Michigan Historical Commission, Floyd Benjamin Streeter, 1921      Handbook of Poetic Forms Jessica Bundschuh, Irmtraud Huber, 2025-10-06 This Handbook of Poetic Forms aims to offer historically informed approaches to a wide variety of poetic forms A particular emphasis will be on considering poetic form in dialogue with the cultural context in which it is being used as well as within the literary tradition of each form and to explore the stable as well as the historically variable affordances of each form in such contexts Hereby the focus lies on prescriptive forms that is on poetic forms which are defined by or at least associated with specific metrical stanzaic or overall structures or the absence of such rather than poetic genres that are primarily characterised by similarities in subject matter like the elegy or the ode While this Handbook should be accessible to students its aim is not to offer basic introductions but rather to broaden a historical and functional understanding of the poetic forms it covers and to engage with poetic forms not as givens but as historically contingent processes of formation Above all this Handbook's formalism is new formalist in emphasising historical awareness and contextualisation      New York Libraries, 1909      Social Sciences Research Gail M. Staines, 2019-03-04 This is a complete revision with new material of the second edition of Social Sciences Research Writing and Presentation Strategies for Students Scarecrow Press 2008 There have been significant changes in the research process in the social sciences since the second edition of this text was published in 2008 a decade ago The plethora of new information technologies e.g. smart phones tablets apps etc the information overload not only on the Internet where anyone can publish but also with the explosion of social media e.g. Twitter Facebook Instagram etc as well as the far reaching changes in databases and other sources of electronic information that is available Complementing the manual are appendixes consisting
