Jolly, 1991 Royal Teton Ranch News, 1989 Challenges of Mapping the Classical World Richard J.A. Talbert, 2018-09-04 Challenges of Mapping the Classical World collects together in one volume fourteen varied items written by Richard Talbert over the past thirty years They cohere around the theme of mapping the classical world since the nineteenth century All were originally prompted by Talbert's commission in the late 1980s to produce a definitive classical atlas after more than a century of failed attempts by the Kiepert and others These he evaluates as well as probing the Smith Grove atlas a successful twenty year initiative launched in the mid 1850s with a cartographic approach that departs radically from established practice Talbert's initial vision for the international collaborative project that resulted in the Barrington Atlas of the Greek and Roman World 2000 is presented and the successive twice yearly reports on its progress from 1991 through to completion are published here for the first time A further item reflects retrospectively on the project's cartographic challenges and on how developments in digital map production were decisive in overcoming them This volume will be invaluable to anyone with an interest in the development and growing impact of mapping the classical world
