The Emperor of All Maladies Siddhartha Mukherjee,2010-11-16 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize and a documentary from Ken Burns on PBS this New York Times bestseller is an extraordinary achievement The New Yorker a magnificent profoundly humane biography of cancer from its first documented appearances thousands of years ago through the epic battles in the twentieth century to cure control and conquer it to a radical new understanding of its essence Now includes an excerpt from Siddhartha Mukherjee s new book Song of the Cell Physician researcher and award winning science writer Siddhartha Mukherjee examines cancer with a cellular biologist s precision a historian s perspective and a biographer s passion The result is an astonishingly lucid and eloquent chronicle of a disease humans have lived with and perished from for more than five thousand years The story of cancer is a story of human ingenuity resilience and perseverance but also of hubris paternalism and misperception Mukherjee recounts centuries of discoveries setbacks victories and deaths told through the eyes of his predecessors and peers training their wits against an infinitely resourceful adversary that just three decades ago was thought to be easily vanquished in an all out war against cancer The book reads like a literary thriller with cancer as the protagonist Riveting urgent and surprising The Emperor of All Maladies provides a fascinating glimpse into the future of cancer treatments It is an illuminating book that provides hope and clarity to those seeking to demystify cancer

Social Networking for Schools Steven M. Baule,Julie E. Lewis Esq.,2012-07-16 This book provides specific and practical ideas for using social media tools to enhance communications instruction and professional development within the K 12 school environment invaluable information for school librarians instructional coaches technology specialists and educational administrators Social Networking for Schools is the only book to take a comprehensive look at the topic of social media use in schools Starting with the numerous justifications for integrating social media into schools it provides real world examples of how to seamlessly integrate social media within your classroom or library examines the methodologies for crafting the necessary policies and procedures to ensure that staff members are prepared to use these tools effectively and discusses the policy and legal issues surrounding the use of social media in schools The work uniquely identifies the three core ways that social media can be integrated within a school as communications tools as instructional tools and for professional development The collaborative effort of a former school librarian and current school administrator with a practicing school attorney authors Steven M Baule and Julie E Lewis bring perspectives and critical insights to the topic not normally considered in similar literature The SAGE Handbook of Digital Society William Housley,Adam Edwards,Roser Beneito-Montagut,Richard Fitzgerald,2022-11-23 This SAGE Handbook brings together cutting edge social scientific research and theoretical insight into the emerging contours of digital society Chapters explore the relationship between digitisation social organisation and social transformation at both the macro and micro level making this a valuable resource for postgraduate students and academics conducting research across the social sciences The topics covered are impressively far ranging and timely including machine learning social media surveillance misinformation digital labour and beyond This innovative Handbook perfectly captures the state of the art of a field which is rapidly gaining cross disciplinary interest and global importance and establishes a thematic framework for future teaching and research Part 1 Theorising Digital Societies Part 2 Researching Digital Societies Part 3 Sociotechnical Systems and Disruptive Technologies in Action Part 4 Digital Society and New Social Dilemmas Part 5 Governance and Regulation Part 6 Digital Futures Intelligent Systems Aline Paes,Filipe A. N. Verri,2025-01-29 The four volume set LNAI 15412 15415 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 34th Brazilian Conference on Intelligent Systems BRACIS 2024 held in Bel m do Par Brazil during November 17 21 2024 The 116 full papers presented here were carefully reviewed and selected from 285 submissions They were organized in three key tracks 70 articles in the main track showcasing cutting edge AI methods and solid results 10 articles in the AI for Social Good track featuring innovative applications of AI for societal benefit using established methodologies and 36 articles in other AI applications presenting novel applications using established AI methods naturally considering the ethical aspects of the application Authenticity in Fusion Music Elsen Portugal,2024-02-26 Indigenous peoples of Brazil have come to faith in Christ in large numbers in recent decades As Christianity takes root in each culture it may incorporate expressive forms of music and art which can range from those identical to earlier cultural forms to those which are fully imported But what happens when musicians and artists of a local indigenous community fuse elements from a variety of genres and create their own music Are they just imitations of external forms Or are they authentic creations from elements that have now become their own sounds too Christian musicians among the Xerente pronounced Sheh ren teh have created their own fusion genre s to express their faith communicate the gospel and edify their churches Their music includes elements from their cultural tradition as well as from secular genres of the northeastern region of Brazil Is it then authentically Xerente As we discuss in this book independent of tangible markers or its long history the authenticity of an art form can be demonstrated through a number of connections with the community and signposted by its meaning and function among the people as well as the competence and agency of the people in their artistic choices
