didn't have to worry about rabid child snatching vampires and the carnage they'd caused to so many innocent families. But something kept her here, tethered to this world, something she couldn't quite remember hovering just on the edge of her consciousness, something vital. It wasn't Fane; he would be with her on the other side, she knew that. If she died, he died too, and he wouldn't have it any other way. She could feel Peri's presence in her body. The fae was fighting, expending every ounce of her energy to keep her and Fane alive, and the strain was taking its toll on the fae. But why? Why was the fae fighting as if her own life depended upon Jacques's survival? Jacques was starting to remember someone else, someone that depended on her. A brand new life, precious and perfect, her son Costin's best friend lay as if sleeping, clinging to life by a mere thread held at the other end by the powerful fae. But the thread holding Costin to his own sanity was just as feeble. Sally, his world, his light, his brown eyes, the only thing that keeps the darkness at bay, was gone. Simply vanished. Costin didn't know how or where, and it was tearing him up inside. The young boy, Titus, his adopted son, was the only thing that kept his wolf from taking over completely. Costin would be strong for the boy for as long as he could, but he wasn't sure how long he could keep the feral wolf at bay. Bethany, the brave young girl that had been rescued from the clutches of the vampire coven to which she'd served as food for the past seven years, was now sharing a room with her true mate, with absolutely no understanding of what that meant. Though the girl had proven to be resilient, she had no idea how to handle her, the huge dominating werewolf that had staked his claim on her. Drake was past the point of feral when he'd found her, and that kind of darkness doesn't let go without a fight. The strongest of alpha females, raised with a full understanding of pack law and the power of the mate bond, would have had a tough time dealing with the wolf. Bethany, a dormant who had no idea who or what she was, didn't stand a chance.

Just One Drop Quinn Loftis, 2012-08-15 Jennifer Adams, best friend to Jacques Pierce and Sally Morgan, spicy, outspoken, a little crazy, and human or so she thought. Jen has just found out that human DNA is not the only thing that resides in her veins; she happens to share that little pesky werewolf gene, although it isn't more than just a drop. Now that she and her friends are living in Romania with Fane's pack, she is also oh so conveniently stuck with the object of her affection, the fur ball Decebel. Drawn to each other by something they don't understand, Jen finds herself frustrated by the lack of mating signs between her and said fur ball. Not only is she dealing with that not so unfrustrating problem, she now has been informed that because of that little drop of werewolf blood in her, she is now required to attend a multi-pack gathering for unmated wolves. This type of gathering hasn't taken place in over a century, but with a shortage of females among the werewolf population, the males are getting worried they won't ever find their true mates. Meanwhile, Decebel struggles with the emotions he is feeling towards Jen. He tries to keep his distance, but there is just something about the mouthy blonde that keeps him coming back for more of her verbal abuse that he just can't seem to get enough of.
