Holy Legionary Youth Roland Clark, 2015-11-16 Founded in 1927 Romania's Legion of the Archangel Michael was one of Europe's largest and longest lived fascist social movements In Holy Legionary Youth Roland Clark draws on oral histories memoirs and substantial research in the archives of the Romanian secret police to provide the most comprehensive account of the Legion in English to date Clark approaches Romanian fascism by asking what membership in the Legion meant to young Romanian men and women Viewing fascism from below as a social category that had practical consequences for those who embraced it he shows how the personal significance of fascism emerged out of Legionaries interactions with each other the state other political parties families and friends and fascist groups abroad Official repression fascist spectacle and the frequency and nature of legionary activities changed a person's everyday activities and relationships in profound ways Clark's sweeping history traces fascist organizing in interwar Romania to nineteenth century grassroots nationalist movements that demanded political independence from the Austro-Hungarian Empire It also shows how closely the movement was associated with the Romanian Orthodox Church and how the uniforms marches and rituals were inspired by the muscular martial aesthetic of fascism elsewhere in Europe Although antisemitism was a key feature of official fascist ideology state violence against Legionaries rather than the extensive fascist violence against Jews had a far greater impact on how Romanians viewed the movement and their role in it Approaching fascism in interwar Romania as an everyday practice Holy Legionary Youth offers a new perspective on European fascism highlighting how ordinary people performed fascism by working together to promote a unique and totalizing social identity The Police Chief ,2002-07 Manufacturers' Record ,1909

The Engineering Record, Building Record and the Sanitary Engineer ,1900 Journal of the American Medical Association ,1919 Includes proceedings of the association papers read at the annual sessions and lists of current medical literature A Nervous State Nancy Rose Hunt, 2015-12-30 In A Nervous State Nancy Rose Hunt considers the afterlives of violence and harm in King Leopold's Congo Free State Discarding catastrophe as narrative form she instead brings alive a history of colonial nervousness This mood suffused medical investigations security operations and vernacular healing movements With a heuristic of two colonial states one nervous one biopolitical the analysis alternates between medical research into birthrates gonorrhea and childlessness and the securitization of subaltern therapeutic insurgencies By the time of Belgian Congo's famed postwar developmentalist schemes a shining infertility clinic stood near a bleak penal colony both sited where a notorious Leopoldian rubber company once enabled rape and mutilation Hunt's history bursts with layers of perceptibility and song conveying everyday surfaces and daydreams of subalterns and colonials alike Congolese endured and evaded forced labor and medical and security screening Quick-witted they stirred unease through healing wonder memory and dance This capacious medical history sheds light on Congolese sexual and musical economies on practices of distraction urbanity and hedonism Drawing on theoretical concepts from Georges Canguilhem Georges Balandier and Gaston Bachelard Hunt provides a bold new framework for teasing out the complexities of colonial history

Industrial Development and Manufacturers' Record, 1909 Production Dynamics for Life Quality in the Incipient 21st Century Chau-kiu Cheung, 2022-08-18 This book addresses the life quality of the average adult in the world based on international data weighted according to national population size It rests on the theoretical framework of analytic functionalism to explain statics and dynamics in the production of life quality The statics means the influences of personal and national factors on life quality whereas the dynamics mean the changes in the influences over time This approach elucidates life quality at the personal level rather than at the national level which overlooks what happens to the average person living in the world The approach involves a broad view of the production of life quality including experiences practices and appraisals of life This production also involves personal background characteristics and the national indicators of modernization globalization and environmental issues Knowledge about the production is helpful for policymakers researchers students and other people to upgrade life quality Such knowledge is valuable because it is up to date generalizable and sensible based on the analytic functionalist theoretical framework and statistical estimation

Multidimensional Threats and Regional Responses to Caribbean Security Wendy C. Grenade, 2024-12-20 Multidimensional Threats and Regional Responses to Caribbean Security assesses the prevalence and intensity of intersecting security threats such as transnational organized crime pandemics and climate change on the state of the Caribbean Community CARICOM The interplay of these various threats can adversely affect small island developing states SIDS This book aims to expose the fault lines in Western-centric international relations which neglects non-military issues non-state actors and other security issues affecting SIDS This volume also explores the efficacy of security regionalism for SIDS where multiple actors cooperate across different levels and pool sovereignty resources and capabilities within legitimate institutional structures in order to prepare for prevent and collectively respond to severe security threats This book argues for a more inclusive global IR that considers the realities of the developing world and a reimagining of security regionalism among CARICOM SIDS
