Blott On The Landscape:

Blott on the Landscape Tom Sharpe, 1984 In Blott on the Landscape the landscape is flawless and the trees majestic until Sir Giles a man of few principles and curious tastes plots to destroy all this by building a highway smack through it to line his own pocket and at the same time to dispose of his wife the capacious Lady Maude Sir Giles recruits to his side Hoskins a corrupt local official Lord Leakham the environmental equivalent of a hanging judge and Dundridge a troublesome bureaucrat with an unhealthy passion for order Pitted against this powerful lobby are a mere handful of local residents led by Lady Maude This explosively comic novel will gladden the heart of everyone who has ever confronted a bureaucrat Tom Sharpe spells out in riotous detail how the forces of virtue play an exceedingly dirty game when the issue is close to home

Blott on the Landscape Tom Sharpe, 1988 Lady Maud with help from Blott her Italian gardener is determined to save her ancestral home from her MP husband's schemes to make it the site of a new highway Allen's Dictionary of English Phrases Robert Allen, 2008-08-07 Allen's Dictionary of English Phrases is the most comprehensive survey of this area of the English language ever undertaken Taking over 6000 phrases it explains their meaning explores their development and gives citations that range from the Venerable Bede to Will Self Crisply and wittily written the book is packed with memorable and surprising detail whether showing that salad days comes from Antony and Cleopatra that flavour of the month originates in 1940s American ice cream marketing or even that we've been calling a spade a spade since the sixteenth century Allen's Dictionary of English Phrases is part of the Penguin Reference Library and draws on over 70 years of experience in bringing reliable useful and clear information to millions of readers around the world making knowledge everybody's property

Who Said That First? Max Cryer, 2010-04 Believe it or not this is probably the first book to attempt to identify the original sources of some of the English language's most common expressions We might think we know who first said famous for fifteen minutes annus horribilis the cold war and let them eat cake It's a no brainer you might say but Max Cryer has a surprise or two in store for you I kid you not In this very readable book he explores the origins of hundreds of expressions we use and hear every day and comes up with some surprising findings Never economical with the truth he might just have the last laugh We learn what they didn't say We are not amused Elementary my dear Watson Let them eat cake First catch your hare We learn that the Bible doesn't mention Salome or seven veils We learn about the origins of the infamous Mile High Club Written in Max Cryer's delightfully witty style WHO SAID THAT FIRST is a wonderful book to dip into or settle a friendly dispute Remember good books are few and far between and you get what you pay for So buy this book go ahead make my day Max Cryer is a writer entertainer and broadcaster who hosts a weekly radio slot on Radio Live on the quirks of the English language In a long career he has been a schoolteacher a compere and television host as well as a performer on the opera stage in London and in cabaret in Las Vegas and Hollywood Now a full time writer living in Auckland he has written many books including LOVE ME TENDER THE GODZONE DICTIONARY and HEAR OUR VOICES WE ENTREAT The inspiration for WHO SAID THAT FIRST During his years working in Hollywood Max Cryer became acquainted with Lucille Ball at the time the world's most popular comedy actress One day when they were having lunch together Max complimented her on the amount of pleasure she gave and Lucille replied I would be absolutely nothing without the writers It's all to do with the way things are written they create the springboard for me The remark stayed with Max for years and he realised it was true Very often the person who said an effective or memorable line didn't actually create it As Lucille Ball had said the person in the background should have the credit but was usually invisible This is what motivated him to seek not just popular expressions but who had actually originated them The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza, 2006-05-17 From the very infancy of the film industry filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material Well known literary works such as Dickens's A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era as were such books as Thomas Dixon's Jr's The Klansman basis for the film Birth of a Nation In recent years Nick Hornsby's About a Boy and each of Helen Fielding's Bridget Jones's Diary novels were the basis for popular movies bearing the same names A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work's title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation's of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered Book Review Index, 2000 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation The Listener, 1985 The Spectator, 1985 The Quilter's Resource Book Maggi McCormick Gordon, 2004 The definitive book on quilting traditions from around the world Includes techniques for making sample blocks also covers patchwork and applique traditions More than 250 full colour photographs of a full range of quilt designs British Novelists Since 1960 Merritt Moseley, 2001 Contains biographical sketches of representative British novelists whose work began to appear roughly around 1960 TV Guide, 1988-02-05 The Literary Filmography: Preface, A-L Leonard Mustazza, 2006 A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work's title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation's of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered The book is published as a set of two volumes Replacement volumes can be obtained individually under ISBN 0 7864 2503 2 for Volume 1 and ISBN 0 7864 2504 0 for Volume 2 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1975 Punch, 1987-05 World Authors,
