Where Theory and Practice Meet Laurence Wong, 2016-08-17 Where Theory and Practice Meet is a collection of nineteen papers in translation studies. Unlike many similar books published in recent decades which are mostly non-translation oriented veering to issues with little or no relevance to translation, this book focuses on the translation process on theory formulation with reference to actual translation on getting to grips with translation problems and on explaining translation in language which can be understood by the general reader. Perceptive and wide ranging, the book covers language pairs that include Chinese-English, French-German, Italian-Spanish, Latin and Classical Greek and discusses among other things translations of Dante's La Divina Commedia, translations of Shakespeare's Hamlet, Goethe's Prometheus as a case of untranslatability, the challenge of translating Garcilaso de la Vega's Primera gloga into Chinese, John Minford's translation of martial arts fiction and Lin Shu's translation of Alexandre Dumas's La Dame aux camélias.

Making Sense of Messages Mark Stoner, 2019-11-13 Making Sense of Messages now in its second edition retains the apprenticeship approach which facilitates effectively learning the complex content and skills of rhetorical theory and criticism. A new chapter on The Rhetoric of Ignorance provides needed theory and examples that help students deal with the new rhetorical landscape marked by such discursive complexities as fake news, whataboutism, and denial of science that creates rather than reduces uncertainty in public argument A new chapter Curating and Analyzing Multimodal Mediated Rhetoric deals with problems of media criticism in the digital age It provides theory models of application and commentary that help novice critics understand and mindfully practice criticism that leads to insight not mere opinion Throughout the book extended and updated examples and commentaries are designed to promote novice to expert agency in students This textbook is ideal for introductory courses in contemporary rhetoric rhetorical criticism and critical analysis of mass media
