Getting into College Frank C. Leana, 2025-10-16 In his manual Getting Into College Leana provides both broad and very specific advice and information that will help high school students gain admission to the college of their choice. It discusses the role of parents, the special problems foreign students face, transfer admissions, using summer vacations to best advantage, and the student with a learning disability. A savvy encouraging manual of tips for high school juniors and seniors embarking on the college admissions merry-go-round, strongest on areas to highlight and correspondingly ways to counterbalance academic weaknesses. Kirkus Reviews

How to Prepare a Standout College Application Alison Cooper Chisolm, Anna Ivey, 2013-08-06 Demystifying the process of completing a college application. Written by two former admissions officers at top universities and current admissions coaches, this book is a must-have for preparing a winning college application. The authors reveal the mystery behind what college admissions officers are looking for and show applicants how to leverage their credentials, stand out in the over-crowded applicants pool, and make a genuine, memorable impression. This is the book that will help the college-bound get off the like-many-others pile and onto the acceptance list. Includes instructions and examples for every component of the college application, from writing the essay to answering questions like "Why do you want to go to College X?" Shows how to avoid underestimating the importance of critical features on any application. Includes the latest information on the Common Application 4.0 and corrects outdated holdover advice still stressed in many other books. This book is filled with step-by-step advice that students and parents can use immediately and will refer to again and again.

Common Sense Police Supervision (7th Edition) Gerald W. Garner, 2024-01-11 Revised, updated, and expanded, this practical, hands-on book is packed full of step-by-step guidelines and suggestions for carrying out a multitude of leadership tasks and responsibilities focused on a changing workforce that serves an equally changing and complex society. While emphasizing the real value of common sense in good leadership practices, the author furnishes the aspiring novice or veteran police supervisor with specific advice on how to train, counsel, inspect, discipline, and assess the performance of his or her subordinates. He strives to help the supervisor with the vital obligations of being a planner, a problem-resolution officer, and an effective communicator, within as well as outside the law enforcement organization. Major topics include: 1. what supervision means and what you need to know; 2. supervisory ethics, professional responsibilities as a teacher, inspector, advocate, and role model; 3. the key qualities of true leadership; 4. the vital job as an evaluator of employee performance; discipline in the correction process; oral and written communication skills; 5. the skills needed when dealing with the news media; 6. assistance in planning a career as a first-line leader in supervision; 7. the skills necessary for effective counseling; 8. managing external and internal complaints; 9. an effective role in community policing and customer service; and 10. effective leadership of different generations. Each chapter concludes with a brief "Points to Remember" that provides a quickly read and easily remembered checklist of the chapter's salient points. The seventh edition furnishes many more practical, helpful, and real-life examples pertaining to leadership issues In addition a new chapter Working for Someone offers insight into this all important topic of what your supervisor expects some pitfalls to avoid addressing the boss s problems and learning the boss s job This new edition offers a realistic approach to the challenging task of providing strong effective leadership to front line employees in a dynamic demanding profession

Cognitive Patterns in Science and Common Sense Theo A.F. Kuipers, Anne Ruth Mackor, 2023-03-13 This collection of 17 articles offers an overview of the philosophical activities of a group of philosophers who have been working at the Groningen University The meta methodological assumption which unifies the research of this group holds that there is a way to do philosophy which is a middle course between abstract normative philosophy of science and descriptive social studies of science On the one hand it is argued with social studies of science that philosophy should take notice of what scientists actually do On the other hand however it is claimed that philosophy can and should aim to reveal cognitive patterns in the processes and products of scientific and common sense knowledge Since it is thought that those patterns can function as guidelines in new research and or in research in other disciplines philosophy can nevertheless hold on to the normative aim which is characteristic of classical philosophy of science Compared to this common assumption there is a diversity of subjects Some papers deal with general problems of science knowledge cognition and argumentation others with topics relating to foundational problems of particular sciences Therefore this volume is of interest to philosophers of science to philosophers of knowledge and argumentation in general to philosophers of mind as well as for scientists working in the physical and applied sciences biology psychology and economy who are interested in the foundations of their disciplines After a foreword by Leszek Nowak and a general introduction by the editors the book is divided into four parts with special introductions I Conceptual Analysis in Service of Various Research Programmes Henk Zandvoort Rein Vos Rick Looijen Gerben Stavenga Ren e Dalitz II The Logic of the Evaluation of Arguments Hypotheses Default Rules and Interesting Theorems Erik Krabbe Theo Kuipers Alfons Keupink Maarten Janssen Yao Hua Tan Bert Hamminga III Three Challenges to the Truth Approximation Programme Sjoerd Zwart Hinne Hetteema Theo Kuipers Roberto Festa IV Explicating Psychological Intuitions Anne Ruth Mackor Jeanne Peijnenburg Lex Guichard Michel ter Hark The Groningen research group was recently qualified by an official international assessment committee as one of the best philosophy research groups in the Netherlands
