The Americans ,2005 QED and the Men Who Made It S. S. Schweber,2020-05-05 In the 1930s physics was in a crisis There appeared to be no way to reconcile the new theory of quantum mechanics with Einstein s theory of relativity Several approaches had been tried and had failed In the post World War II period four eminent physicists rose to the challenge and developed a calculable version of quantum electrodynamics QED probably the most successful theory in physics This formulation of QED was pioneered by Freeman Dyson Richard Feynman Julian Schwinger and Sin Itiro Tomonaga three of whom won the Nobel Prize for their work In this book physicist and historian Silvan Schweber tells the story of these four physicists blending discussions of their scientific work with fascinating biographical sketches Setting the achievements of these four men in context Schweber begins with an account of the early work done by physicists such as Dirac and Jordan and describes the gathering of eminent theorists at Shelter Island in 1947 the meeting that heralded the new era of QED The rest of his narrative comprises individual biographies of the four physicists discussions of their major contributions and the story of the scientific community in which they worked Throughout Schweber draws on his technical expertise to offer a lively and lucid explanation of how this theory was finally established as the appropriate way to describe the atomic and subatomic realms

Young China Mingwei Song,2020-05-11 The rise of youth is among the most dramatic stories of modern China Since the last years of the Qing dynasty youth has been made a new agent of history in Chinese intellectuals visions of national rejuvenation through such tremendously popular notions as young China and new youth The characterization of a young protagonist with a developmental story has also shaped the modern Chinese novel Young China takes youth as a central literary motif that was profoundly related to the ideas of nationhood and modernity in twentieth century China A synthesis of narrative theory and cultural history it combines historical investigations of the origin and development of the modern Chinese youth discourse with close analyses of the novelistic construction of the Chinese Bildungsroman which depicts the psychological growth of youth with a symbolic allusion to national rejuvenation Negotiating between self and society ideal and action and form and reality such a narrative manifests as well as complicates the various political and cultural symbolisms invested in youth through different periods of modern Chinese history In this story of young China the restless elusive and protean image of youth both perpetuates and problematizes the ideals of national rejuvenation
