A Continent for the Taking Howard W. French, 2007-12-18 In A Continent for the Taking Howard W. French a veteran correspondent for The New York Times gives a compelling firsthand account of some of Africa's most devastating recent history from the fall of Mobutu Sese Seko to Charles Taylor's arrival in Monrovia to the genocide in Rwanda and the Congo that left millions dead. Blending eyewitness reportage with rich historical insight French searches deeply into the causes of today's events illuminating the debilitating legacy of colonization and the abiding hypocrisy and inhumanity of both Western and African political leaders. While he captures the tragedies that have repeatedly befallen Africa's peoples French also opens our eyes to the immense possibility that lies in Africa's complexity diversity and myriad cultural strengths. The culmination of twenty-five years of passionate exploration and understanding this is a powerful and ultimately hopeful book about a fascinating and misunderstood continent.
