Installation Overview

1. There are optional mounting plates and screws for wall-mount. Proceed to place the screws on the back of the device as shown in (Fig. 1).

2. The screw close to the power terminal block is used to connect the grounding of the DM500. Although internal grounding has been done, in order to ensure overall maximum performance and protection it is advised to link this point to the ground as well. On the terminal block, there is a terminal for Frame Ground, you can choose whether to connect it the grounding, you may opt between only one of these two grounds (Fig. 2).

3. Fix the antennas to the female RP-SMA connectors deemed to, (Fig. 3). You can then choose whether to place the terminal block at this point or do it later depending on the actual location of the device or level of comfort for performing such operation.

4. Now proceed to mount the whole device on a DIN Rail as shown in (Fig. 6). To remove it, refer to Fig. 5.

5. Connect the device to the LAN switch or PC, depending on the case, take care on using an RJ45 terminal/connector; after this we can then proceed to the device's settings.

• Fig. 6 illustrates not recommended setup for the DM500, signal will strongly decrease with the antenna on this position. For correct antenna setup, please refer to Fig. 2.

• The openings to the sides are for the device's heat dissipation and there may be inside hazardous voltages, please never obstruct or cover them with any objects or try to insert them through it.

• DM500's factory IP by default is 192.168.2.2 you can access the device by its Web UI once it is connected to a physical network.

Maintenance and Service

If the device requires servicing of any kind, you may need to disconnect and remove it from its mounting. The initial installation should be done in a way that makes this as convenient as possible.

• Voltage/Power lines should be properly insulated as well as other cables. Be careful when handling them so as to not trip over.

• Do not under any circumstance insert foreign objects of any kind into the heat dissipation holes located in the different faces of the device. This may not only harm the internal layout but might cause harm to you as well.

• Do not under any circumstance open the device for any reason. Please contact your dealer for any repair needed or follow the instructions on section of your User's manual.
