

Make Your Own Shadow Puppet Activity

Make your own shadow puppets to tell the story of Jesus and His life with your child. You can also use them to experiment with light and shadows, making them a brilliant way to play with science as well as learn about Jesus!

You will need

- Make Your Own Shadow Puppet templates
- Coloured sticks or paper straws
- Sticky tape
- Scissors

You might also like to make a little shadow puppet theatre to use when you play with your puppets – use a cardboard box, hang a piece of brown paper at the front and place a torch shining towards this. Then, use your shadow puppets to act out a story!

Instructions

1. Print and cut out your Make Your Own Shadow Puppet templates. Laminate them if you like to make them a bit sturdier.
2. Stick a hollow stick or paper straw to the back of each puppet template with a bit of sticky tape. You might want it to stick out of the back, side or top of the puppet – you could even experiment with different places.

Place a white piece of paper on the table (or stick it to the wall) and a torch with the light shining directly onto the paper. Then put your puppet in front of the torch. What do you notice?

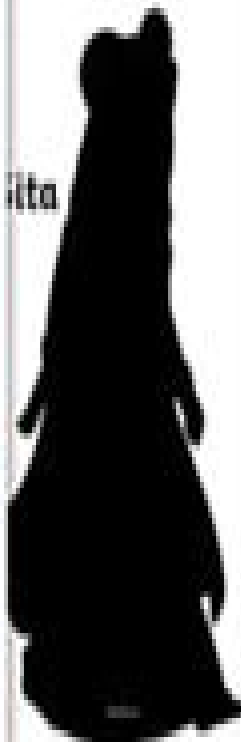

What happens if you use a different material in your shadow puppet theatre? Try a range of different materials to find out!

What happens when you move the puppet closer to the torch? What happens when you move the puppet further away from the torch?

Find out what happens if you use coloured lights with your shadow puppets (you can do this by placing a piece of coloured cellophane over your torch, and shining it with an electric torch).
