

The Holocaust: Document Based Question

Holocaust Historical Context: The Nazi party brought together the German people in the hopes of creating a new and powerful German state. This sense of community was not for everyone, the Nazis pushed a highly racist agenda against several groups, particularly those of the Jewish faith. The rise of the Nazi Party from 1933-1945 had a profound impact on the lives of many people throughout Europe. Unimaginable deaths including over a million children suffered at the hands of the Nazis. Throughout the course of the Holocaust between five and six million Jews were killed.

Directions: Using the documents below complete the Document PQR and Significance worksheet and respond to the question posed below in two to three paragraphs on a separate sheet of paper.

Question: How did the Nazis implement their "Final Solution" for the Jewish question? How did this impact those being targeted? Provide evidence from the documents to support your claims.

Document 1

Nazi Conspiracy and Aggression - Washington, U.S.Govt. Print: Off., 1946, Vol. III, p. 543-547
Message From SS-Gruppenführer Heydrich to all State Police Main Offices and Field Offices, November 10, 1938

Regarding: Measures against Jews

- a) Only such measures may be taken which do not jeopardize German life or property (for instance, burning of synagogues only if there is no danger of fires for the neighborhood).
- b) Business establishments and homes of Jews may be destroyed but not looted. The police have been instructed to supervise the execution of these directives and to arrest looters.
- c) In business streets special care is to be taken that non-Jewish establishments will be safeguarded at all cost against damage.
- As soon as the events of this night permit the use of the designated officers, as many Jews, particularly wealthy ones, as the local police will find, are to be arrested on all districts. Initially only healthy male Jews, not too old, are to be arrested. After the arrests have been carried out the appropriate concentration camp is to be contacted immediately with a view to a quick transfer of the Jews to the camp.

Life in the Warsaw Ghetto, Emanuel Ringelblum quoted in Yad Vashem Documents on the Holocaust, pp. 228-229

Smuggling began at the very moment that the Jewish area of residence was established. Its inhabitants were forced to live on 250 grams of bread a day, 120 grams of sugar a month, 2 kg of jam and 1 kg of honey, etc. It was calculated that the officially supplied rations did not cover even 10 percent of the normal requirements. If one had wanted really to restrict oneself to the official rations then the entire population of the ghetto would have had to die of hunger in a very short time.... The German authorities did everything to seal off the ghetto hermetically and not to allow in a single gram of food. A wall was put up around the ghetto on all sides that did not leave a single millimeter of open space.... They fixed barbed wire and broken glass to the top of the wall.

From the testimony of SS-Unterscharführer Wilhelm Bauer in his trial at Hamburg. Quoted in "Truth Prevails"

If my memory serves me right, about thirty to forty women were passed in one gas chamber. The Jewish women were forced to undress in an open space close to the gas chamber, and were driven into the gas chamber by the above mentioned SS-members and the Ukrainian auxiliaries. When the women were shut up in the gas chamber I and Hoflander set the motor in motion. The motor functioned first in neutral, both of us stood by the motor and switched from "Neutral" ("Leerlauf") to "Go" ("Gelang"), so that the gas was conveyed to the chamber. At the suggestion of the chemist, I fixed the motor on a definite speed so that it was unnecessary to set forth to go on the gas. About ten minutes later the thirty to forty women were dead.

Letter from Hitler to Josep Goebbels, 1922

"I am ever in power the destruction of the Jews will be my first and most important job. As soon as I have the power I shall have gallows after gallows erected. Then Jews will be hanged one after another and will stay hanging until they die."

Teaching History with Big Ideas S. G. Grant,Jill M. Gradwell,2010-07-16 In the case studies that make up the bulk of this book middle and high school history teachers describe the decisions and plans and the problems and possibilities they encountered as they ratcheted up their instruction through the use of big ideas Framing a teaching unit around a question such as Why don t we know anything about Africa offers both teacher and students opportunities to explore historical actors ideas and events in ways both rich and engaging Such an approach exemplifies the construct of ambitious teaching whereby teachers demonstrate their ability to marry their deep knowledge of subject matter students and the school context in ways that fundamentally challenge the claim that history is boring
