Making a Difference: Volume I and II Sasha A. Barab, Kenneth E. Hay, Nancy Butler Songer, Daniel T. Hickey, 2017-09-05 William Wordsworth 1770 1850 needs little introduction as the central figure in Romantic poetry and a crucial influence in the development of poetry generally This broad ranging survey redefines the variety of his writing by showing how it incorporates contemporary concepts of language difference and the ways in which popular and serious literature were compared and distinguished during this period It discusses many of Wordsworth s later poems comparing his work with that of his regional contemporaries as well as major writers such as Scott The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth s construction of community and his use of power relationships A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included     Adaptation, Resistance and Access to Instructional Technologies: Assessing Future Trends In Education D'Agustino, Steven, 2010-09-30 This book captures the current trends in technology integration from PreK 12 to higher education focusing on the various constituent groups namely students teachers and communities in education and the effects of educational technology on learning and empowerment Provided by publisher     Exploring Psychology in Modules with DSM5 Updates David G. Myers, 2014-02-12 This modules based version of Myers Exploring Psychology breaks down the book s 15 chapters into 43 short modules Myers was inspired to create this text by the memory research in chunking showing that shorter reading assignments are more effectively absorbed than longer ones as well as by numerous students and instructors who expressed a strong preference for textbooks with more shorter chapters Each self standing module can be read in a single sitting and instructors can assign any combination of modules in any order they want DSM 5 Updates Available for Fall 2014 classes this update version features new content from David Myers in response to the release of the DSM 5 This new content is integrated into the text without changing pagination or the structure of the chapters A special DSM 5 Supplement by the David Myers is available for Fall 2013 and Spring and Summer 2014 courses     Washington Public Documents Washington (State), 1905     Official Documents, Comprising the Department and Other Reports Made to the Governor, Senate, and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania Pennsylvania, 1900     Advocacy and Archaeology Kelly M. Britt, PhD,, Diane F. George, 2023-04-01 Archaeologists have a history of being prime agents of change particularly in advocating for protection and preservation of historical resources As more social issues intersect with archaeology and historical sites we see archaeologists and others continuing to advocate for not only historic resources but for the larger social justice issues that threaten the communities in which these resources reside Inspired by the idea of revolution and excitement about the ways archaeology is being used in social justice arenas this volume seeks to visualize archaeology as part of a movement by redefining what archaeology is and does for the greater good     Resources in Education , 1996-05     House documents , 1897     *Legislative Documents Submitted to the ...
