

The MSE power packs have been studied to offer a rational and economic solution to the many applications of the hydraulic automation. Delivered fully equipped with the production standards imposed, offering a high quality level to every single way of mounting and working of the unit, the components are easily interchangeable and make power packs exceptionally flexible. Moreover, the modularity allows the assembly of the whole range of power packs with a versatile and economic stocking of the components. The result is a compact, economic and noiseless unit with high performance to be employed in all the industrial fields.
