

Summary Consumer Behavior

Chapter 1: Buying, Having and Being: An Introduction to Consumer Behavior

Consumer Behavior: People in the Marketplace

Demographics: descriptive characteristics of a population like age, gender, income or occupation.

Knowledge of consumer characteristics plays an extremely important role in many marketing applications.

Consumption communities: where members share opinions and recommendations about anything.

Market segmentation strategies: an organization targets its product, service or idea only to specific groups of consumers rather than to everybody – even if it means that other consumers who don't belong to this target market aren't attracted to it.

Brands often have clearly defined images, or “personalities”, that advertising packaging, branding and other marketing elements help to shape. This can create brand loyalty.

Brand loyalty: a bond between product and consumer that is difficult for competitors to break.

What is Consumer Behavior?

Consumer behavior: the study of the process involved when individuals or groups select, purchase, use or dispose of products, services, ideas, or experiences to satisfy needs and desires.

Consumer Behavior is a Process

Consumer behavior is an ongoing process.

Exchange: a transaction in which two or more organizations or people give and receive something of value. This is an integral part of marketing.

Although exchange theory remains an important part of consumer behavior, the expanded view emphasizes the entire consumption process, which includes the issues that influence the consumer before, during and after a purchase.

Consumer: a person who identifies a need or desire, makes a purchase and then disposes of the product during the three stages of the consumption process. The purchaser and user of a product might not be
