

Tier 3 Contractor Safe Practices Survey

This form must be completed annually by Tier 3 suppliers and submitted 3-5 business days prior to requested entry date. Approval for use of chemical products in the yard requires up to 10 days to process.

Tier 3 suppliers are those under NASSCO contract who perform the following:
Suppliers/subcontractors who are required to conduct work and provide services in office buildings and within production areas of the shipyard, ships at NASSCO and Naval facilities, parking lots and waterfront locations, or any other NASSCO facility. [See Notice of Safety Requirements for detailed explanation]

It is your company's responsibility to know and comply with the safety requirements of each job, including work specifications, applicable NAVSEA Standard Items, Federal OSHA and Cal-OSHA standards, and other relevant documents. Your company is responsible for providing the necessary training to ensure that your employees as well as your suppliers adhere to the applicable requirements while working at NASSCO facilities and contract locations. If work location, job scope, employees, or anything else pertaining to the job changes during the duration of your safety approval it is the companies responsibility to notify the Safety Department immediately.
