Self-Confrontation John C. Broger, BCF writing team, 1991-10-01 The purpose of this manual is to teach you how to examine yourself biblically so you can live in a manner that pleases the Lord and help others to do the same The material in this manual also has been used in Bible studies for youth and adults classes for Christian students junior high high school college and seminary level courses of study designed to prepare missionaries for their ministry evangelism training discipleship training in prison ministries Sunday school classes home group studies personal devotional studies and Scripture memorization programs In addition it has proved valuable as a resource for pastors counselors health care professionals personnel managers educators social workers and other professionals who are responsible to deal with personal and interpersonal problems As you progress through this manual you will discover many other uses for this material in your life and personal ministry Please do not be intimidated by the volume of Scripture references contained in this manual A new believer in Jesus Christ can find great comfort and help from looking up only one verse out of many that are listed on a particular subject On the other hand the Bible scholar or seminary student may desire to research many of the Scripture references from the original languages of the Bible No matter how proficient you are in using Scripture this manual encourages you to rely on the Word of God to discover God's sufficiency for every aspect of your life Self-confrontation

John C. Broger, 1991 The Biblical Counseling Movement David Powlison, 2010-02-12 Beginning in the late 1960s a biblical counseling movement sought to reclaim counseling for the church and provide a Christian alternative to mainstream psychiatry and psychotherapy The Biblical Counseling Movement History and Context is an informative and thought provoking account of that movement David Powlison's historical account DISCIPLESHIP Rae L. Baer, 2024-10-01 This Transformational Discipleship workbook is a comprehensive six lesson series designed to guide individuals through an in depth exploration of The Bible with a focus on fostering spiritual growth and transformation Originally presented at the author's local church over the span of a year these lessons have been carefully adapted into a workbook format to allow for personal study or group discussion Each lesson builds upon the previous one creating a robust framework for understanding and living out the principles of discipleship in everyday life The first lesson lays the foundation by exploring the concept of discipleship as modeled by Jesus Christ emphasizing the importance of faith and obedience Subsequent lessons delve into critical topics such as the role of scripture in personal transformation the significance of prayer and community and the impact of service and evangelism Through a combination of biblical exegesis reflective exercises and practical applications participants are encouraged to examine their own spiritual journeys and identify areas for growth By the end of the series individuals will have a deeper understanding of what it means to be a disciple of Christ and be equipped with the tools to continue their spiritual development Counseling John F. MacArthur, Wayne A. Mack, Master's College Faculty, 2017-03-07 Gain a knowledge of counseling methods that are practical and consistent with Christian theological convictions What do the Scriptures say about counseling What is the biblical basis for using Scriptures in counseling What does it mean to think biblically about counseling related issues At the root of this book is the confidence that Christ and his Word are not only sufficient for effectively handling the personal and interpersonal challenges of life but are superior to the resources found in the world The practice of psychological counseling is a ministry and should not belong only to the realm of humanistic and secular theories of the mind Written to pastors elders deacons seminary students and laypeople well known pastor John MacArthur and contributors present a system of biblical truth that brings together people their problems and the living God This kind of counseling is based on the convictions that God s Word should be our counseling authority Counseling is a part of the basic discipling ministry of the local church God s people can and should be trained to counsel effectively Counseling How to Counsel Biblically provides biblical guidelines to counsel people who are struggling The contributors represent some of America s leading biblical teachers and counselors including Ken L Sarles David Powlison Douglas Bookman David B Maddox Robert Smith William W Goode and Dennis M Swanson Reclaiming the Urban Family Willie Richardson,1996 Practical family ministry for both the church and the unchurched are the foundation of this book African American churches can help prevent dropouts from society and restore those who have dropped out They can help strengthen single parent homes and prevent divorce but it needs the kind of vision and strategies Richardson describes
