Conquering Shame And Codependency:

Conquering Shame and Codependency Darlene Lancer, 2014-06-17 Learn how to heal from the destructive hold of shame and codependency by implementing eight steps that will empower the real you and lead to healthier relationships. Shame is the torment you feel when you are exposed, humiliated or rejected, the feeling of not being good enough. It is a deeply painful and universal emotion yet is not frequently discussed. For some, shame lurks in the unconscious, undermining self-esteem, destroying confidence and leading to codependency. These codependent relationships, where we overlook our own needs and desires as we try to care for, protect or please another, often cover up abuse, addiction or other harmful behaviors. Shame and codependency feed off one another, making us feel stuck, never able to let go, move on and become the true self we were meant to be. In Conquering Shame and Codependency, Darlene Lancer sheds new light on shame, how codependents' feelings and beliefs about shame affect their identity, their behavior, and how shame can corrode relationships, destroying trust and love. She then provides eight steps to heal from shame, learn to love yourself and develop healthy relationships.
