Dawn Lawson Fascinating Womanhood:

The Colonial Journals Ken Gelder, Rachael Weaver, 2014 Colonial Australia produced a vast number of journals and magazines that helped to create an exuberant literary landscape They were filled with lively contributions by many of the key writers and provocateurs of the day and of the future Writers such as Marcus Clarke Rolf Boldrewood Ethel Turner and Katharine Susannah Prichard published for the first time in these journals This book offers a fascinating selection of material a miscellany of content that enabled the free play of intellect to thrive and matched with wry visual design made attractive artifacts that demonstrate the role this period played in the growth of an Australian literary culture Gelder and Weaver arrange this anthology of excerpts from the journals of Australia in the later 19th century to show off the rich contents of these journals The excerpts refute the stereotype that Australia in this era was rousing nationalist The book features color illustrations of magazine covers which show how accomplished the pre 1900 publishing industry in Australia was Recommended Choice Vol 52 No 4 December 2014

The Triumph of Reality TV Leigh H. Edwards, 2013-01-09 This book provides an up to date account of how reality TV has developed why it has become the most popular genre on television today and how the explosion in reality TV signals new developments in American media culture The reasons behind reality TV s continued popularity go beyond the sensationalism and low production cost of these programs there is much more to the genre s continued success than just escapism or guilty pleasure TV The Triumph of Reality TV The Revolution in American Television identifies and explores five key media trends reality TV has used to continually draw in viewers and ensure success These media trends include innovations in storytelling making emotional appeals to viewers and applying content from television to other media such as films music albums webisodes online games and smart phone apps Author Leigh H Edwards also analyzes how reality TV shows target themes of social conflict such as changing ideas of the American family and address common anxieties and tensions in American society such as gender race class and economic struggle A wide variety of reality shows including American Idol Celebrity Rehab Jackass Run s House Survivor and The Hills are profiled An appealing read for students scholars and general readers alike this book provides fascinating insights into the complexities of a seemingly simplistic form of mass entertainment
