Variations on Wole Soyinka's "Death and the King's Horseman" Christiane Fioupou, Anne Fuchs, Postcolonial Identity in Wole Soyinka Mpalive-Hangson Msiska, 2007 Soyinka s representation of postcolonial African identity is re examined in the light of his major plays novels and poetry to show how this writer s idiom of cultural authenticity both embraces hybridity and defines itself as specific and particular For Soyinka such authenticity involves recovering tradition and inserting it in postcolonial modernity to facilitate transformative moral and political justice The past can be both our enabling future and our nemesis In a distinctive approach grounded in cultural studies Postcolonial Identity in Wole Soyinka locates the artist s intellectual and political concerns within the broader field of postcolonial cultural theory arguing that although ostensibly distant from mainstream theory Soyinka focuses on fundamental questions concerning international culture and political identity formations the relationship between myth and history tradition and modernity and the unresolved tension between power as a force for good or evil Soyinka s treatment of the relationship between individual selfhood and the various framing social and collective identities so the book argues is yet another aspect linking his work to the broader intellectual currents of today Thus Soyinka s vision is seen as central to contemporary efforts to grasp the nature of modernity His works conceptualize identity in ways that promote and modify national perceptions of Africanness rescuing them from the colonial and neocolonial logic of cultural denigration in a manner that fully acknowledges the cosmopolitan and global contexts of African postcolonial formation Overall what emerges from the present study is the conviction that in Soyinka's work is the capacity to assume personal and collective agency and the particular choices made by particular subjects at given historical moments that determine the trajectory of change and ultimately the nature of postcolonial existence itself. Postcolonial Identity in Wole Soyinka is a major and imaginative contribution to the study of Wole Soyinka African literature and postcolonial cultural theory and one in which writing and creativity stand in fruitful symbiosis with the critical sense. It should appeal to Soyinka scholars to students of African literature and to anyone interested in postcolonial and cultural theory.

Ready Reference Treatise Raja Sharma, 2015. Death and the King's Horseman by Wole Soyinka was first published in 1975. The story of the play is based on a real incident. The incident had taken place in Nigeria during the British colonial rule. There was an important native chief who was going to commit ritual suicide but he was prevented from doing so by the colonial authorities. On one hand the authorities prevented him from committing suicide but on the other hand the chief's own intention comes under question in the play. Thus a problem is posed before the community and it disturbs the community's balance. Ready Reference Treatise Death and the King's Horseman Copyright Chapter One Introduction Chapter Two Plot Overview Chapter Three Characters Chapter Four Complete Summary Act One Act Two Act Three Act Four Act Five Chapter Five Critical Analysis

Ntozake Shange the author contends that the refashioning of the collective cultural self in black drama originates from the complex intersection of three discourses Eurocentric Afrocentric and Post Afrocentric From blackface minstrelsy to the Trinidad Carnival from the Black Aesthetic to the South African Black Consciousness theatres and the scholarly debate on the non existence of African drama Olaniyan cogently maps the terrains of a cultural struggle and underscores a peculiar situation in which the inferiorization of black performance forms is most often a shorthand for subordinating black culture and corporeality Drawing on insights from contemporary theory and cultural studies and offering detailed readings of the above writers Olaniyan shows how they occupy the interface between the Afrocentric and a liberating Post Afrocentric space where black theatrical cultural difference could be envisioned as a site of multiple articulations race class gender genre and language
