QUESTION: WHICH COUNTRY IS A MARKET ECONOMY? The market system is a system of economic organisation in which the means of production, distribution and exchange are privately owned and operated. In a market economy, the decisions about what to produce, how to produce, and for whom to produce are made by individuals and firms acting in their own self-interest. The market system is based on the principle of supply and demand, and the price mechanism is used to allocate resources. The market system is the most common form of economic organisation in the world.
