Role and Responsibilities

A game director's role is to execute Game Time. Within that role a game director has several responsibilities.

Planning. After prayer, planning is a game director's number-one priority. Whether a club has five or 500 children, games cannot be spontaneous and unstructured without resulting in chaos and tears.

Planning includes the following:

- Choose age-appropriate games
- Choose a variety of games
- Know and be able to provide clear instructions
- Prepare equipment
- Support club themes and activities when possible
- Maintain equipment
- Request purchase of new equipment when necessary.

Implementing Games.

An exciting Game Time is a hallmark of Awana. Simple, fast-moving games that all children can play help make Game Time fun for everyone.

Game implementation is not simple. Some responsibilities are listed below:

- Ensure necessary equipment is available
- Keep your leadership involved and fully participating
- Communicate and demonstrate game rules to leaders and clubbers
- Help everyone have a chance to excel
- Maintain proper discipline
- Model good sportsmanship
- Lead games

Worksheet

List of games to be played and the equipment needed

Ask yourself, "Where will I stand? What will I say while explaining the game? What will the clubbers do?"

What possibly can go wrong?"

Arrive at club early to set out game supplies before club gets started.
