Planning for a Better Urban Living Environment in Asia Anthony Gar-On Yeh, Mee Kam Ng, 2018-12-20 First published in 2000 this volume explores how Asia has developed very rapidly in the last quarter of the century and will be a main focus of the world in the 21st century. With rapid growth and development the urban areas in the region are undergoing dramatic changes. An appreciation of the heterogeneous nature of Asian cities and the related planning practices in the first step to understand various urban development problems in the region. This book is a consolidated effort by prominent scholars in Asian planning schools to explore urban development and planning practices in Asia. The book reflects on and examines some of the past and current challenges and considers future prospects of urban and regional planning environment housing redevelopment and conservation and planning education in Asia. This book should be useful to students teachers researchers professionals and people who are interested in urban development planning and environment in Asia.

The Brigands' Song: Serving in the Army of A Native Chieftain, 2021-12-20 This is an annotated edition of a traditional song text written in the Zhuang character script. The Brigands Song is part of a living tradition sung antiphonally by two male and two female singers. The song is probably unique in presenting the experiences of ordinary men and women during wartime in pre modern China. The narrative relates how the men are sent off to war fighting as native troops on behalf of the Chinese imperial armies. The song dates from the Ming dynasty and touches on many topics of historical significance such as the use of firearms and other operational details.
