An aerial photograph of San Francisco, California, taken during the "golden hour" of sunset. The Transamerica Pyramid, a prominent skyscraper with a pointed top, is the central focus in the foreground, its windows glowing with interior lights. The city's dense urban landscape is visible below, with streets and buildings illuminated by the warm, orange light of the setting sun. In the background, the San Francisco Bay is visible, with the Golden Gate Bridge and other distant structures under a clear, blue sky.
