TOPIC: ELECTORAL MALPRACTICE

Electoral malpractice is defined as the illegal activities performed during election. It can also be defined as the act of cheating during election.it is also known as rigging of election.

FORMS OR EXAMPLES OF ELECTORAL MALPRACTICE

1. Financial inducement: This is when political candidates or political parties are giving electorates money to vote for them or their candidates during election. This prevents electorates to vote for the right candidates.
2. Fake ballot papers: This is when desperate political party or candidate print a fake ballot paper in order to increase his or her votes during election in order to win since election is a game of number.
3. Electoral violence: These are various troubles or wickedness some desperate political parties or political candidates engage themselves against opponent parties or candidates in order to win election. They could get the service of thugs to scare people away during election mostly when they have discovered that they may likely lose vote in that area. Also killing and kidnapping of the opponent political candidates are also part of it.
4. Stealing of ballot boxes: Some desperate politicians could engage some thugs to steal away the ballot box(s) in a particular polling booth which they might have perceived to lose votes in the place so that the vote of that area would not be counted.
5. Falsification of electoral figure/result: Some desperate political parties who want to win election at all cost may look for means to bribe electoral commission to help them to increase the figures of their candidates above the other opponents so that their candidates can win.
6. Artificial scarcity of electoral materials: some political parties especially the party in power may decide to create fake scarcity or reduce supply of electoral materials to the constituencies or polling booth which they have already perceived that they may likely lose election. This is done to reduce the number of electorates that would vote there.
7. Under age voting: This is the use of unqualified citizens or under age(less than 18) to vote during election to increase their chances of winning by desperate political parties.
8. Fake manifesto: Some political parties during their campaign before election make fake and lie promises to the people so that they could canvass or win the mind of the majority electorates to vote for them during election. This is a wrong act during election.
