Explorations in Southern African Drama, Theatre and Performance Patrick J. Ebewo, 2017-05-11 In spite of the rich repertoire of artistic traditions in Southern Africa particularly in the areas of drama theatre and performance there seems to be a lack of a corresponding robust academic engagement with these subjects While it can be said that some of the racial groups in the region have received substantial attention in terms of scholarly discussions of their drama and theatre performances the same cannot be said of the black African racial group As such this collection of thirteen chapters represents a compendium of critical and intellectual discourses on black African drama theatre and performance in Botswana Lesotho South Africa and Swaziland The topics covered in the book include amongst others ritual practices interventionist approaches to drama textual analyses and the funeral rites viewed as performance of the South African liberation icon Nelson Mandela The discussions are rooted mainly using African paradigms that are relevant to the context of African cultural production The contributions here add to the aggregate knowledge economy of Southern Africa promote research and publication and provide reading materials for university students specialising in the performing arts As such the book will appeal to academics theatre scholars cultural workers and arts administrators arts practitioners and entrepreneurs the tourism industry arts educators and development communication experts

The War on Drugs and the Global Colour Line Kojo Koram,2019-03-20 The War on Drugs has led to millions of people dead displaced and incarcerated Disproportionately enforced on oppressed races international drug prohibition has reinforced the colour line across the globe While laws prohibiting the production sale and use of particular drugs are presented as politically neutral and objective this collection reveals the racist impact of the War on Drugs across multiple continents and in numerous situations From racialised drugs policing at festivals in the UK to the necropolitical wars in Juarez Mexico and from the exchange of drug policing programs between the United States and Israel to the management of black bodies in Brazil this collection proves that the regulation of drugs and race is an international and intentional disaster Pushing forward the debate and activism led by groups such as Black Lives Matter and calling for radical changes in drug policy legislation and prison reform both nationally and internationally this collection cuts deep and rings true for all people fighting racism today
