

Drama Games

These 45 improv drama games strengthen a variety of essential drama skills, using the voice, body, team collaboration, and even memory. They range from warm-up games for individuals and teams, to scene creation, to games that can be played to hone skills while the class is rehearsing a play. Some games last a few minutes, while others (depending on the size of your class) could take a whole lesson. Some of these games are frequently used ones, but many will be new to you. They all have one thing in common: FUN! The resource ends with a Reader's Theater Script. This script is a Middle School drama class mystery that the students have to collaborate to solve.

Table of contents:
