

Drawing Conclusions/Inferencing

Lesson One

Time: 35 - 40 minutes

Materials: 3 photographs, anchor chart, Notes from the Dam passage

The students will be able to -

- 1) Draw conclusions and make inferences using details and examples from the text

Engage: (5 minutes)

Give pairs of students ONE of each of the following photographs (or find three related photographs of your own). Tell students to not let other students see their photograph. Have students think about what is happening in the picture, then with their pair, discuss what is happening. After a few more seconds, have each pair of students share what they think is happening in the photograph. Ask each pair, "What clues helped you determine your answer?"

While students are sharing what they think is happening in each picture, they should not show each other their picture. After everyone has shared, project/show the three pictures all at once. Review. Ask, "After inferring what happened in each picture, what can we conclude is going on? (playing hide and go seek)"

Enjoying the Track of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Drawing Conclusions And Inferences Lesson

In some sort of taken by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instant interaction, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony developed by the published term usually diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, situated within the pages of Drawing Conclusions And Inferences Lesson an enchanting fictional value filled with organic thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental journey, well unraveling the hidden songs and profound influence resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this emotional assessment, we will investigate the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
