of Bob Steele Marni J. Binder,Sylvia Kind,2017-05-10 Drawing as Language Celebrating the Work of Bob Steele is a Festschrift in honour of Bob Steele Professor Emeritus artist educator and tireless advocate for bringing authentic aesthetic lived experiences to young children Bob Steele s prolific contribution to the field of visual arts education recognizes the importance of drawing for everyone but especially with young children As an artist teacher researcher Bob has devoted decades to developing understandings of drawing as language He is a progressive thinker with commitment and passion and through a lifetime of work has provoked serious engagement with children s drawing processes how children learn through drawing through authentic experiences with their sensory world and through their intense engagement with stories In this unique collection we have invited educators and scholars whose work represents the ongoing influence of the ideas and teachings of Bob Steele what he has brought to the field of art education early childhood studies and curriculum studies in general It traces the history and development of his ideas The reader is taken through his journey as a young educator in rural Saskatchewan Canada to significant moments in his teaching and his work The voices of the contributors offer an insightful alternative into how drawing need not be limited to a particular discipline but can be language of communication a language that significantly matters in the daily lives and learning not just only for children but for those who also work with them We hope this Festschrift inspires you to think about the drawings of children differently and take your understanding to a new level Connecticut Wildlife ,2013 Trauma Informed Teaching through Play Art Narrative (PAN) Karen O. Wallace,Patrick J. Lewis,2020-06-02 Trauma affects the lives of many children who we teach in school It effects the students teachers who teach them the administration and the school community as it is part of the school environment and culture Teachers and administrators have great potential to set up an environment and adopt an attitude that can help heal the trauma in the lives of their students Schools need to become trauma informed to be able to provide for the growing number of refugee children who have experienced terrorism crime war and abuse to better help some Indigenous children who due to systemic racism and discriminatory policies have been traumatised and live daily with trauma and the growing number of all children who have experienced various kinds of trauma during their life span Trauma informed schools means that all students can feel safe enough to learn succeed academically and thrive after having undergone a traumatic event Trauma Informed Teaching demonstrates how Play Art Narrative PAN can be instrumental in creating trauma informed schools The authors provide play art and narrative techniques and activities that educators can use to safely work therapeutically with traumatised children and youth The Invention of Childhood Creativity Cat Martins,2024-11-15 This text offers a comprehensive analysis of the concept of the modern creative and imaginative child in Western education Drawing on archived sources and historical works it reframes childhood creativity as a social cultural and scientific construction asking how our thinking and acting toward the creative child have been produced historically The text dissects the discursive construction of creativity as a natural and developmental attribute of the child It argues that the idea of the White creative child constructed through comparative reasoning shaped by primitivism and illustrated through botanical metaphors as close to nature and the senses is a notion embedded with colonialities forming part of a Western civilizing project and entrenched power knowledge relations A compelling and original account of childhood creativity this text will appeal to researchers in arts education early childhood education curriculum studies and the history of education Century of the Child Juliet Kinchin,Aidan O'Connor,2012 The book examines individual and collective visions for the material world of children from utopian dreams for the citizens of the future to the dark realities of political conflict and exploitation Surveying more than 100 years of toys clothing playgrounds schools children s hospitals nurseries furniture posters animation and books this richly illustrated catalogue illuminates how progressive design has enhanced the physical intellectual and emotional development of children and conversely how models of children s play have informed experimental aesthetics and imaginative design thinking Advances in Child Development and Behavior ,2015-02-24 Volume 48 of Advances in Child Development and Behavior includes chapters that highlight some the most recent research in the field of developmental psychology Each chapter provides in depth discussions and this volume serves as an invaluable resource for developmental or educational psychology researchers scholars and students Chapters highlight some of the most recent research in the area A wide array of topics are discussed in detail Play in the Early Years Marilyn Fleer,2017-05-01 The second edition of Play in the Early Years provides a comprehensive introduction to pedagogy and play in early years education settings Drawing on classical and contemporary theories this text examines social cultural and institutional approaches to play and explores a range of strategies for successfully integrating play into classrooms Thoroughly revised to include the latest methods and research this edition features new material on intentional teaching play as learning digital play and discipline specific content Two new chapters discuss post structuralist and cultural historical conceptions of play and extended practical examples link pedagogical practice to the Early Years Learning Framework EYLF and the Australian Curriculum The text is pedagogically rich and each chapter is supported by a comprehensive companion website which provides links to videos readings and supplementary activities Freshly presented in a new full colour layout and written in an engaging style Play in the Early Years remains an essential resource for pre service students and practitioners South Dakota Conservation Digest ,2010 Bulletin ,2014 Tigerpaper ,2012 Mexico & Malaysia ,2014 The Tiger Paper ,2012 Colorado Outdoors ,2014 Builders National Gallery of Canada,Heather Marie Anderson,Jonathan Shaughnessy,2012 Builders Canadian Biennial 2012 is the National Gallery of Canada s second exhibition of new Canadian art acquired over the past two years and features over 100 paintings sculptures drawings videos and multimedia installations created by more than forty artists In placing emergent practices alongside long established Canadian artists who have been instrumental in building a context for Canadian art today Builders offers the opportunity to appreciate the range of aesthetic accomplishment in this country Publisher description Catalogue of Paintings and Drawings in Water Color Museum of Fine Arts, Boston,1949 Quill & Quire ,2010 The American School Board Journal ,1913
