Think Big with Think Alouds Molly Ness, 2017-07-13 I'm guessing that those two are planning a surprise The author keeps mentioning the storm because she wants us to think that the character's upset Wait yikes I gotta go back and reread because I'm not getting this part These are the flickering thoughts of a strategic reader If only we could bottle all these mental moves and pour them into the minds of our students then readers' achievement would grow exponentially In Think Big With Think Alouds Molly Ness delivers a process that comes close to bottling that magic Molly spent a year researching teachers' think alouds and she uses these findings to help you know just what to do The big time saver You focus on just these five strategies asking questions making inferences synthesizing understanding the author's purpose and monitoring and clarifying Select the one or two strategies that align to your text and get ready with a stack of sticky notes Grab a pencil and you are on your way to dynamic lessons using Molly's three step planning process Read Once Go wild putting a flurry of sticky notes on spots that strike you Read Twice Whittle your notes down to the juiciest stopping points Read Three Times Jot down what you will say so there's no need to wing it in front of the kids Other practical tools include More than 20 ready made think aloud scripts for favorite texts by Sandra Cisneros Seymour Simon Shel Silverstein and many others to use for think alouds for fiction informational text and poetry Fun small group and partner activities to gradually transfer comprehension strategies to your students Downloads on the companion website including spinner and dice
