Competency-Based Education Rose L. Colby, 2019-01-02 Competency Based Education introduces educators to a new model for anytime anywhere schooling and provides tools and curriculum resources for redesigning the traditional structures of K 12 schools Based on pioneering work across multiple states the book shows how educators can design central elements of competency based education including performance tasks personal learning plans and grading systems to meet the needs and interests of all students Rose L Colby provides critical tools for creating these elements in collaborative teams and engaging stakeholders such as educators parents and community members The book incorporates case studies and voices from the field and examines the variety of competency models that schools have adopted highlighting the benefits for students Competency Based Education provides a much needed resource at a time when states districts and schools are working to implement competency based models and experimenting with new accountability systems that include evidence of learning beyond standardized tests Rethinking Grading Cathy Vatterott, 2015-07-13 Grading systems often reward on time task completion and penalize disorganization and bad behavior Despite our best intentions grades seem to reflect student compliance more than student learning and engagement In the process we inadvertently subvert the learning process After careful research and years of experiences with grading as a teacher and a parent Cathy Vatterott examines and debunks traditional practices and policies of grading in K 12 schools She offers a new paradigm for standards based grading that focuses on student mastery of content and gives concrete examples from elementary middle and high schools Rethinking Grading will show all educators how standards based grading can authentically reflect student progress and learning and significantly improve both teaching and learning Cathy Vatterott is an education professor and researcher at the University of Missouri St Louis a former middle school teacher and principal and a parent of a college graduate She has learned from her workshops that grading continues to be the most contentious part conjuring up the most intense emotions and heated disagreements Vatterott is also the author of the book Rethinking Homework Best Practices That Support Diverse Needs
