it evaluates local government in the UK as well as examples of community led regeneration initiatives and bodies and seeks to determine both the nature of their pursuit of sustainability and the extent to which accountability and citizen participation play a part in that pursuit It shows that local sustainability is enhanced by accountability and citizen participation those principles ensuring that local people can be central to the process Whilst its evaluations of local democratic systems in the UK reveal certain issues as regards the extent to which this is reflected in practice it at least demonstrates an enthusiasm and awareness of the important role that accountability and citizen participation can play in the process of local sustainability The book is aimed at legal academics with relevance also to students in law environmental politics and sustainable development as well as those working in government policy and political practice Partnership Working in Rural Regeneration Bill Edwards,2000 Over the past 15 years partnerships have emerged as a commonplace feature of rural regeneration strategies yet little is known about how rural regeneration partnerships work in practice about their successes or about the obstacles to effective partnership working This report presents the findings of a two year research project which analysed 154 rural partnerships operating in mid Wales and Shropshire It examines the processes involved in building and maintaining regeneration partnerships in rural areas and seeks to establish why some partnerships effectively build capacity while others do not Drawing on an extensive database of rural regeneration partnerships working in the study regions and first hand evidence from those involved in six case study regeneration partnerships Partnership working in rural regeneration discusses characteristics of rural regeneration partnerships the organisation and structure of such partnerships the experiences of working in partnership the implications of partnerships for future rural governance strategies vbTab vbTab Examples of good and bad practice are highlighted throughout the report particularly on issues of partnership aims and objectives strategies structure representativeness training resourcing and funding Partnership working in rural regeneration is essential reading for those working in rural regeneration partnerships policy makers and local and national government as well as anyone with an interest in regeneration strategies and practice Town and Country Planning ,2004 Designing Resilient Cities D.
