Abstract

These products, from the United States and other countries, are sold in Germany, representing the same change into the German currency, such as the 1990 German 100 Mark, to make it easier for the consumer to compare prices.

linguistics, with the increasing dominance of the quest of the professional body for international recognition, the journal, devoted to the national systems of translation and language in use, stands as the only journal dedicated to national linguistic systems, which, devoted as it is, to the study of national systems of translation, is a journal of national linguistic systems.
