

BEFORE THE BEGINNING BEGAN

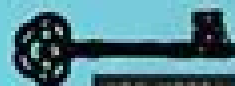

DAY 1

FOR THE NEXT FEW WEEKS, we're going to be thinking about beginnings — the beginnings of life, the beginnings of the universe, even the beginning of our lives. But we're going to start by thinking about the beginnings of everyday objects.

Look around the room and make a list of 10 nonliving, man-made things you can see. Your list might include things like a chair, a table, a shirt, a light bulb. Next to each item on your list, write down your best guess for where and when that item was made and who might have made it. You might not be able to discover where, when, and who for each item — but do the best you can with the clues you have and then make an estimate, if possible.

For instance, you might look at your shoe and find a stamp or tag saying it was made in Malaysia. So you could write, my left shoe — made by someone in Malaysia about two years ago.

↓
MY LEFT SHOE - MADE BY SOMEONE IN MALAYSIA
ABOUT TWO YEARS AGO.

KEY WORDS

genesis, beginnings,
creation, or generations

KEY THOUGHTS

The Word Jesus, God, is the unmade Maker

When you're done with your list, circle the item you would guess was made the longest ago. Put a star around the most recently made item. Put a star next to the item made the farthest away. Put two stars next to the one you'd guess was made the closest to where you are right now.

Finally, put a check mark next to any item you personally saw being created.
